Social Life and Development in Hong Kong Ambrose Y. C. King, Rance P. L. Lee, 1981 The papers in this volume prepared by social scientists with different specializations address selected aspects of Hong Kong's post War development Social Life and Development in Hong Kong A. Y. C. King, 1981-07 The papers in this volume prepared by social scientists with different specializations address selected aspects of Hong Kong's post War development Hong Kong's History Tak-Wing Ngo, 2002-09-11 Rewriting Hong Kong's history from the bottom up the chapters investigate vital but hitherto obscured aspects of the colony's rise They cover the Chinese collaboration with the colonial regime legal discrimination and intimidation rural politics social movements government business relations industrial policy flexible manufacturing and colonial historiography Drawing together contributions from historians sociologists and political scientists the book highlights the role played by a variety of social actors in Hong Kong's history and differs both from recent celebrations of British colonialism and anti colonial Chinese nationalism Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies Identity in Community Paul Kwong, 2011 The term ContactZone was coined in postcolonial discourse to signify the place where cultures and religions meet It implies that first contact cultural religious exchange and conflict have always been determined by power relations Through making use of communication theories hermeneutics and aesthetics intercultural theology generates new terminologies and theoretical tools to explore these interactions Its scope ranges from issues such as dialogue and syncretism to fundamentalism and ethnicity Perspectives of culture religion race class and gender alike are involved in the necessary multi axial approach ContactZone is going to create a space where a choir of multiple voices is responding to the challenges of the cultural religious pluralism of the 21st century Archbishop Paul Kwong 1950 develops the idea of identity in community as central to the mission and theological agenda of Christians in Hong Kong In a wide ranging multidisciplinary study he analyzes diverse perspectives on the territory's recent history and compares the methodological approaches of local theologians with contextual theologies from other parts of the world He argues that the overlapping cultural and religious identities of Christians in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region SAR of China can empower Hong Kong people to embrace rather than to exclude differences and otherness so that they can accept and live out our their identities in community without having to make a choice for one among the many      Citizenship and Citizenship Education in a Changing World Orit Ichilov,2013-12-19 Political economic technological and cultural changes have taken place all over the globe changes which have transformed the meanings of citizenship and citizenship education This volume represents an effort to analyze the implications of these changes      中國大學出版社,1981      A Localized Culture of Welfare Kwok-shing Chan,2012-01-01 This book presents an ethnographic account of the significance of kinship in welfare matters in Chinese society It will be a useful reference book and secondary text for anthropologists sociologists and university students who are interested in Chinese kinship and welfare issues the relationship between welfare and culture and the cultures underlying systems of welfare      中國大學出版社,2001      Social life and development of Hong Kong ,1994      A History of Hong Kong Frank Welsh,1997      中國大學出版社,1991      Chinese University Bulletin Chinese University of Hong Kong,1980      中國大學出版社,1993      International Handbook of Contemporary Developments in Sociology Raj Mohan,Arthur Wilke,1994-11-14 Many changes have happened in sociology around the world in the last few decades This reference work offers a thorough overview of recent developments in sociology in a wide range of countries The chapters written by expert contributors provide first hand information on new research trends and significant advances Chapters generally provide a broad historical context and then focus on developments in sociology since 1975 Part One contains chapters on sociology in Western and Northern Europe Part Two on the Western Hemisphere includes several chapters on sociology in the United States along with Canada and Latin America Part Three discusses the many changes in Eastern Europe that have happened in recent years while Parts Four Five and Six covering Southern Europe Africa and the Middle East and the Far East add a valuable perspective to the work Chapters include detailed bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the work      International Handbook on Gender Roles Leonore Loeb Adler,1993-11-19 This valuable and unique reference surveys and synthesizes information on gender roles in more than thirty countries from around the world Each chapter is devoted to a single country and the chapters are arranged in alphabetical order for ease of use All of the chapters are written from the perspective of experts who have lived and worked in the countries profiled To foster cross national comparisons each chapter follows the same format including an introduction and contextual overview gender roles in infancy and childhood school years young adulthood adulthood and old age and a summary and conclusions The design of the chapters traces the development of gender roles across the life cycle and affords an additional opportunity for comparing data This reference will be of interest to anyone concerned with gender issues psychology sociology and anthropology      中國大學出版社,2003

Civic Discourse, Civil Society, and Chinese Communities Randy Kluver,John H. Powers,1999-11-10 The purpose of this volume is to bring together a set of chapters that investigate the communication practices through which Chinese societies are creating their civil foundations for the next millennium Civic Discourse Civil Society and Chinese Communities reflects both the emphasis on analyzing specific discursive practices in particular Chinese societies and on understanding the role that discursive practices play in the development of civil society more generally Confucian Traditions in East Asian Modernity Weiming Tu, 1996 How Confucian traditions have shaped styles of being modern in Japan South Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore presents a particular challenge to the intellectual community Explorations of Confucian network capitalism meritocratic democracy and liberal education have practical implications for a sense of self community economy and polity Seventeen scholars of varying fields of study here bring their differing perspectives to a consideration of the Confucian role in industrial East Asia Confucian concerns such as self cultivation regulation of the family social civility moral education well being of the people governance of the state and universal peace provide a general framework for the study The Confucian Problematik how a fiduciary community can come into being through exemplary teaching and moral transformation underlies much of the discussion The contributors question all unexamined assumptions about the rise of industrial East Asia at the same time exploring the ideas norms and values that underlie the moral fabric of East Asian societies Is Confucian ethics a common discourse in industrial East Asia The answer varies according to academic discipline regional specialization and personal judgment Although there are conflicting interpretations and diverging perspectives this study represents the current thinking of some of the most sophisticated minds on this vital and intriguing subject Ethnic Conflict Jerry Boucher, Dan Landis, Karen Arnold Clark, 1987 International Perspectives on Ethnic Conflict focuses on conflict between ethnic groups which are not organized as nation states By studying ethnic conflict the authors indicate crucial variables which are relevant to the understanding of superpower or minipower rivalry and violence The conclusion considers possible political economic and social solutions which will minimize the probability of conflict and the possibility of social catastrophe
