Cosmopolitanism and Europe Chris Rumford,2007 Europe s ongoing transformation has prompted the emergence of cosmopolitanism as a particularly relevant lens through which to analyze European politics and society As the European Union grows in size its member states are increasingly occupied with responsibilities that extend beyond their narrow national interests This timely book with contributions from Ulrich Beck Daniele Archibugi and Gerard Delanty persuasively argues that cosmopolitan perspectives are vital to the study of contemporary Europe      History, Memory and Mass

Atrocity Dan Stone,2006 The book s main theme is the interpretation of the Holocaust and genocide in historiography philosophy and the contemporary culture of commemoration Running through the essays is an attempt to understand the Holocaust s relationship to modernity the need to find ways of understanding genocide through apparently non rational forms of explanation especially derived from anthropology and the desirability of relating the Holocaust to other instances of genocide The book investigates the ways in which individual thinkers Malinowski Arendt Bataille Perec Ricoeur can help us conceptualise the Holocaust and also deals with many of the major themes of Holocaust and Genocide Studies in recent years problems of handling testimony problems of erecting monuments and museums the representability of the Holocaust through texts photographs monuments and museums the possibility of understanding why individuals take part in genocide and the relationship of the Holocaust to colonial genocide Contains previously inaccessible essays The book is arranged into four sections interpretations of the origins and nature of the Holocaust studies of individual thinkers responses to the Holocaust questions of representation and commemoration and understanding genocide      Constructing the Holocaust Dan

Stone,2003 On the one hand then this is traditional historiography the history of history writing On the other hand the problem is approached via recent work in the philosophy of history closely analysing historical works as texts This is an interdisciplinary study that brings to bear on historiography the kind of textual analysis usually reserved for fiction testimony or film The Holocaust precisely because it throws into doubt older methodologies demands the search for new ones Showing how Holocaust historians inadvertently and paradoxically reinscribe into the wider culture patterns of thought that the Holocaust repudiated Constructing the Holocaust tries to respond to the Holocaust in a way that recognises its potential impact on usually unquestioned beliefs and unspoken methodological assumptions
