Social History of the Matthean Community David L. Balch,1991 Boanerges Paul Gillaerts,2004 Social Science and the Christian Scriptures, Volume 2 Anthony J. Blasi,2017-04-13 Sociologist Anthony Blasi analyzes early Christianity using multiple social scientific theories including those of Max Weber Georg Simmel Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci Max Scheler Alfred Schutz and contemporary theorists He investigates the canonical New Testament books as representative of early Christianity a sample based on usage and he takes the books in the chronological order in which they were written The result is a series of stills that depict the movement at different stages in its development His approaches often neglected in New Testament studies include such sociological subfields as sect theory the routinization of charisma conflict stratification theory stigma the sociology of knowledge new religions the sociology of secrecy marginality liminality syncretism the social role of intellectuals the poor person as a type the sick role degradation ceremonies populism the sociology of migration the sociology of time mergers the sociology of law and the sociology of written communication Needing to treat the New Testament text as social data Blasi uses his background in biblical studies and a review of a vast literature to establish the chronology of the compositions of the New Testament books and to present the data in a new translation that is accessible to non specialists

Matthew's Theology of Fulfillment, Its Universality and Its Ethnicity Herman C.

Waetjen,2017-10-19 The interpretation of this gospel integrates an objective analysis of its historical context and a subjective semantic disclosure of meaning To that end a close reading of the text is combined with consistency building in order to achieve textual congruence and plenitude of meaning The subject object split of traditional biblical scholarship that requires analysis in order to produce explanation as a definable object is superseded in this book by the event of reading as a dynamic happening of personal experience from which the reader cannot detach herself or himself

Identity Formation and the Gospel of Matthew Tekalign Duguma Negewo,2024-03-13 Why does the author of the Gospel of Matthew introduce non Jewish characters into his narrative Tekalign Duguma Negewo answers this question on the assumption that the gospel had an identity forming function for his community

The Significance of Interpersonal Forgiveness in the Gospel of Matthew Isaac Kahwa Mbabazi,2013-10-21 Isaac Mbabazi makes a major contribution to the field of New Testament by arguing that the relevant Matthean theme of interpersonal forgiveness is quite central to the first Gospel In The Significance of Interpersonal Forgiveness in the Gospel of Matthew he delineates five sets of evidence in support of his argument Beginning with a survey of all Matthean forgiveness and forgiveness related texts he then carries out an in depth exegesis of two key Matthean texts in which the idea of interpersonal forgiveness is explicit Discourse analysis informs his discussion offering valuable insight into Matthew s point of view Mbabazi notes that the forgiveness pattern that emerges from contemporary Greco Roman literature differs remarkably from the pattern found in Matthew where granting forgiveness appears not only as a reasonable act but reluctance or failure to grant it makes the unforgiving person accountable to God

A Wandering Galilean Zuleika Rodgers,Margaret Daly-Denton,Anne Fitzpatrick Mckinley,2009 Starting his career as a scholar of the New Testament Seán Freyne's work became synonymous with the study of Galilee in the Greek and Roman periods His search for a deeper and more nuanced understanding of Judaism in the Greek and Roman periods and the development of the early Christian movement has led him to interface with scholars in many related disciplines In order to do justice to the breadth of Seán Freyne's interests this volume includes contributions from scholars in the fields of Archaeology Ancient History Classics Hebrew Bible Early Judaism Rabbinic Judaism Early Christianity New Testament and Medieval Judaism The resulting volume demonstrates not only the honoree's interdisciplinary interests but also the interconnectedness of these disciplines The New Testament Church John P. Harrison,James D. Dvorak,2012-05-01 Christian communities today face enormous challenges in the new contexts and teachings that try to redefine what churches should be Christians look to the New Testament for a pattern for the church but the New Testament does not present a totally uniform picture of the structure leadership and sacraments practiced by first century congregations There was a unity of the Christian communities centered on the teaching that Jesus is the Christ whom God has raised from the dead and has enthroned as Lord yet not every assembly did exactly the same thing and saw themselves in exactly the same way Rather in the New Testament we find a collage of rich theological insights into what it means to be the church When leaders of today see this diversity they can look for New Testament ecclesiologies that are most relevant to the social and cultural context in which their community lives This volume of essays written with the latest scholarship highlights the uniqueness of individual ecclesiologies of the various New Testament documents and their core unifying themes Matthew's Parables Warren Carter,John Paul Heil,2023-11-16 This book presents a comprehensive treatment of all of the parables in the Gospel of Matthew It discusses the significance of each parable as it is heard within the progression of the narrative Rather than focusing on the intent of Jesus the parable teller or of Matthew their redactor it is concerned with what happens as the authorial audience interacts with the parables Social Scientific Criticism of the New Testament John Hall Elliott,1995 A survey of the field of social scientific criticism in relation to the New Testament It covers the leading practitioners provides practical illustrations of its use and evaluates its achievements Ancient History in a Modern University: Early Christianity, late Antiquity, and beyond T. W. Hillard,1998 Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary,1997 Ancient History in a Modern University: Early Christianity, late Antiquity, and beyond ,1998 One of the contributors is OC alum Dale Hartman From Antipas to Agrippa II Bradley Walter Root,2009 This dissertation argues against the widespread belief among current scholars that Galilee experienced extensive Hellenization rapid urbanization and a socio economic crisis in the first century C E as a result of major socio economic changes initiated by Herod the Great and his successors My research indicates that earlier studies allowed the textual evidence to have an undue influence on the way that scholars interpret the archaeological evidence and vice versa Unlike previous studies on

Early Roman Galilee the dissertation begins by attempting to interpret each source for the region individually and without recourse to other sources After establishing what each source says on its own about Galilee the dissertation analyzes the data as a whole and offers a reconstruction of Galilean society in the first century C E that better reflects the available evidence The major findings are that the region was politically stable until the Great Revolt of 66 C E that the region was much less Hellenized than some prominent scholars claim that the urbanization process initiated by Herod Antipas had less of a negative immediate impact on Galilean society than modern scholars usually assume and that Galilee was not experiencing any unusual or severe socio economic problems prior to the revolt Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson,2002 Drawing from a wide selection of classic and contemporary works this best selling reader includes 56 readings that represent a plurality of voices and views within sociology Toronto Journal of Theology ,1993 New Testament, History of Interpretation John Haralson Hayes,2004 A collection of scholarly articles originally published in the Dictionary of Biblical Interpretation about the interpretation of the individual New Testament books Also included as an appendix are the articles from the Dictionary of Biblical Interpretation about the Biblical Apocrypha and pseudepigrapha The articles have been lightly edited and the bibliographies updated Each article concisely covers the history of interpretation of each New Testament book Stands on the shoulders of previous interpreters of the Scriptures Useful for term papers classroom study Useful in the research and understanding of historical trends in Biblical interpretation The articles on the Apocrypha and pseudepigraph are included in two appendices Common Life in the Early Church Julian Victor Hills,1998 This book offers a breadth of focus on community or common life in various Christian eras that is how that life is pictured both in texts and in early Christian art Readers will find opportunity here to become current regarding what has been said and what is being said about how religious communities have defined themselves and how they have been seen by outsiders In addition readers will learn more about the origins of monasticism a claim for a very early date is made about Jewish and Christian relations in the early centuries about house churches and much more Schismatics, Sectarians, Dissidents, Deviants Jack T. Sanders,1993 What were relations between Judaism and Christianity in the first century of the Christian era and why did they develop as they did Unlike other studies this book does not limit the evidence of Jewish Christian relations to text but also draws on the growing body of material evidence The Dead Sea Scrolls Lawrence H. Schiffman,Emanuel Tov,James C. VanderKam,2000
