Social Security Administration,1949    Crime Prevention in the Urban Community Kōichi Miyazawa,Setsuo Miyazawa,1995-04-30 One of today s most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology ISC held at Chuo University Tokyo It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world This makes an interchange of ideas between Western Eastern and Third World criminologists particularly important General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency The existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort    Social Security and Society Victor George,2018-07-20 Originally published in 1973 Social Security and Society examines of the dominant forces that form the British social security system and argues that social security provision is not the result of concern felt by the dominant groups in society Instead the book suggests that it is the result of the threat posed to the status quo by the growing political power of the working class and the realization by the dominant groups that social security benefits are functional to economic growth and political stability The book covers poverty low pay unemployment and equality and demonstrates how social security measures reflect and reinforce the inequalities of the economic and social system inequalities which are accepted legitimised and approved by society
