Social Transformation And Private Education In China:

Social Transformation and Private Education in China Jing Lin, 1999-10-30 Private schools resurfaced in China after 1978 when the Chinese government embarked on an economic reform for modernization This book offers a comprehensive review of the development characteristics issues and problems of private schools at primary secondary and university levels especially elite private schools for children of very wealthy families Based on fieldwork at about 40 private and public schools in China this study also critically examines social response and government reactions to private education development and ends with reflections on its significance and future prospects touching on issues concerning social equality efficiency public school reform and democratization in China

Education and Social Change in China: Inequality in a Market Economy Gerard A. Postiglione, 2015-01-28 Market reform financial decentralization and economic globalization have greatly accentuated China's social and regional inequalities Education is expected to address these inequalities in a context of rapid social change including the rise of an urban middle class changed status of women resurgence of ethnic identities growing rural to urban migration and lingering poverty in remote areas But some argue that state policies have not sufficiently addressed inequitable practices and that schools actually perpetuate and reproduce inequities giving rise to a new system of social stratification driven more by market forces than socialist principles Featuring all original previously unpublished material this volume examines this argument through analysis of selected aspects of educational stratification in China during the reform era Chapters focus on the new urban middle class poor rural residents the migrant population in urban areas rural girls and ethnic minorities The contributors are established scholars in the field and they build a conceptual framework for assessing the degree to which China's educational reforms are inclusive equitable and integrative across social categories and groups

Gridlock and Solutions Shui Bing, The Politics of Private Education in Rich and Poor China Daniel B. Wright, 2005 Private Education in Modern China Peng Deng, 1997-09-23 Briefly reviews the educational legacy of imperial China then traces the movement for private education from its beginning in the middle of the 19th century to the resurgence in post Mao China He includes Catholic and Protestant mission schools as well as other non governmental schools Deng describes educators as heroic figures and fills gaps in the record with laudatory comments
