For the latter, examples mainly include from the reaction of "non-labour income campaigns" of 1986; food and housing situations worsened and many soviet cities, which continued to get worse when local officials prevented the delivery of food products that were grown on private land, as well as disallowing individuals to spare addition rooms in flats.
3. Party Mindedness: Since all problems must be carried out from the point of view of the party, one particular issue came about:
