State Historical Society of Wisconsin, 1876 Magical Interpretations, Material Realities Henrietta L. Moore, Todd Sanders, 2001 Magical Interpretations Material Realities brings together many of today's best scholars of contemporary Africa. The theme of witchcraft has long been associated with exoticizing portraits of a traditional Africa but this volume takes the question of occult as a point of entry into the moral politics of some very modern African realities. James Ferguson University of California USA. These essays bear eloquent testimony to the ongoing presence and power of the occult imaginary and of the intimate connection between global capitalism and local cosmology in postcolonial Africa. A major contribution to scholarship that aims to rework the divide between modernity and tradition. Charles Piot Duke University USA. This volume sets out recent thinking on witchcraft in Africa paying particular attention to variations in meanings and practices. It examines the way different people in different contexts are making sense of what witchcraft is and what it might mean. Using recent ethnographic materials from across the continent the volume explores how witchcraft articulates with particular modern settings for example the State in Cameroon Pentecostalism in Malawi the university system in Nigeria and the IMF in Ghana Sierra Leone and Tanzania. The editors provide a timely overview and reconsideration of long standing anthropological debates about African witchcraft while simultaneously raising broader concerns about the theories of the western social sciences. Annual Report and Collections of the State Historical Society, of Wisconsin, for the Year ... State Historical Society of Wisconsin, 1876 Plato's Cave John O'Neill, 1991. This book argues that our world is inescapably mediated or specularized. It investigates human dilemmas without taking flight into cultural and political elitism and at the same time does not ignore the corporate and military agenda that is serviced by the media at great human cost. Arguments are drawn from political economy psychoanalysis and semiotics to describe the cultural functions of the media with respect to the state the economy the family women and children and with regard to the problem of sustaining democratic public and civic institutions whose activities are wholly represented through the media.
