Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2013-02-01 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own

Jaffe, 1993 American politics and government are so moribund according to Erwin Jaffe that serious political dialogue is a stranger in a land celebrated for freedom of expression Healing the Body Politic examines the sources of this condition among them the loss of connectedness society's orientation toward mobility and its relative disinterest in place neighborhood and community widespread misunderstanding of the distinction and relationship between power and violence and a distorted image of political life and responsibility This broad based work examines these problems and proposes both in theoretical and practical terms a rethinking and rediscovery of political power and political life as the only viable solution Drawing on a variety of fields including traditional political theory this work points the way to a restoration of American political life and our ability to cope once again with the problems of civil society It will be of interest to scholars and students of political science political theory and American government      Proceedings of the Huguenot Society of London Huguenot Society of London, 1898 A bibliography of some works relating to the Huguenot refugees whence they came where they settled v 1 pp 130 149      A Stranger to My Time Frederick Philip Grove, 1986      Abundant Community John McKnight, 2008-09-13 We need our neighbors and community to stay healthy produce jobs raise our children and care for those on the margin Institutions and professional services have reached their limit of their ability to help us The consumer society tells us that we are insufficient and that we must purchase what we need from specialists and systems outside the community We have become consumers and clients not citizens and neighbors John McKnight and Peter Block show that we have the capacity to find real and sustainable satisfaction right in our neighborhood and community This book reports on voluntary self organizing structures that focus on gifts and value hospitality the welcoming of strangers It shows how to reweave our social fabric especially in our neighborhoods In this way we collectively have enough to create a future that works for all      The Publications of the Huguenot Society of London ,1900      The Face of the Stranger Angela Carson, 1984 Face Of The Stranger by Angela Carson released on Mar 25 1984 is available now for purchase      *Annual Report of the Government ...
