D'Cruz, James Douglas Fleck, 1985 From the back cover Canada can compete in international markets but not the authors contend under the present national economic strategy Policies that redistribute income and allocate resources through government fiat have weakened Canada's ability to transform its manufacturing sector to meet the new competitive challenges D'Cruz and Fleck

compare the performance of seventy one Canadian industries from 1967 to 1981 with industries in Japan the United States Britain and France To enhance the competitiveness of Canadian manufacturing the authors propose a differential industrial strategy one that emphasizes growth and development Government they say must play a hands off role in Canada s market economy limiting itself to establishing the rules of the game The authors recommend in addition macro economic policies that would reduce the federal deficit restrain wages for public servants preserve low differentials between Canadian and American interest rates and maintain the Canadian dollar at 70 cents U S
