Talking Hawaii's Story Michiko Kodama-Nishimoto, Warren Nishimoto, Cynthia A. Oshiro, 2009-05-01 Talking Hawaii's Story is the first major book in over a generation to present a rich sampling of the landmark work of Hawaii's Center for Oral History. Twenty nine extensive oral histories introduce readers to the sights and sounds of territorial Waikiki to the feeling of community in Palama in Kona or on the island of Lanai and even to the experience of a German national interned by the military government after Pearl Harbor. The result is a collection that preserves Hawaii's social and cultural history through the narratives of the people who lived it: co-workers, neighbors, family members and friends. An Introduction by Warren Nishimoto and Michiko Kodama Nishimoto provides historical context and information about the selection and collection methods. Photos of the interview subjects accompany each oral history. For further reading an appendix also provides information about the Center for Oral History's major projects.

The Little Book of Talk Judith Dancer, 2017-01-12

Identified as one of the three prime areas of learning in the EYFS 2014 communication and language is high on the agenda of head teachers and leaders in all Early Years and school settings. Speech and talk are at the centre of this requirement and children are required to meet an expected level in order to be identified as having reached a good level of development. Talk is the precursor to both reading and writing. Essentially if children have nothing to speak about they have nothing to write about. The best way for children to enhance their receptive vocabulary the words they understand and their expressive vocabulary the words they use is by being surrounded by adults who talk and listen to them. Adults should engage children by observing them tuning into their passions getting involved in their play and using their interests to trigger their curiosity and therefore form a springboard for learning. This Little Book is packed with lots of low budget ideas, activities and experiences that will enhance and enrich children's learning journeys through talk.

Focussing on Britain and the United States, Buddhism's influence on a range of key literary texts will be examined in the context of those societies evolving modernity. Writers discussed include T S Eliot, Hermann Hesse, Virginia Woolf, Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, J D Salinger, Iris Murdoch, Maxine Hong Kingston.
