Story Of Doctor Dolittle:

The Story of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting,2023-12-17 The Voyages of Doctor Dolittle was the second of Hugh Lofting's Doctor Dolittle books to be published coming out in 1922. It is nearly five times as long as its predecessor and the writing style is pitched at a more mature audience. The scope of the novel is vast it is divided into six parts and the illustrations are also more sophisticated. It won the Newbery Medal for 1923. It was one of the novels in the series that was adapted into the film Doctor Dolittle. The novel begins when Tommy Stubbins the narrator of the story finds a squirrel injured by a hawk. Matthew Mugg the cat's meat man informs him to get help from Doctor Dolittle who can speak the language of animals. The Doctor is away on a voyage but when he returns he attends to the squirrel. Tommy is introduced to some of the strange animals in Dolittle's care such as the Wiff Waff fish and those who care for his household such as Dab Dab the duck and Jip the dog. Polynesia the parrot arrives in Puddleby from Africa informs the Doctor that Bumpo is studying in Bullford. Tommy begins his studies with Doolittle or rather with Polynesia who teaches Tommy the language of animals. Chee Chee comes from Africa disguised as a lady and tells about his voyage to Puddleby. The Doctor acquires The Curlew and is thinking of taking Tommy Polynesia and Luke the Hermit. They find out from the hermit's dog Bob that he was sent to prison for murder but Bob is a witness so when the court is in the process the Doctor proves to the judge that he can talk to animals when this is settled he translates Bob's story to English. When the story is finished the judges conclude that the hermit is innocent.

The Story of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting,2022-08-10 In The Story of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting crafts a whimsical yet profound narrative that follows the compassionate doctor who discovers he can communicate with animals. This enchanting tale rich in anthropomorphism and adventure is marked by Lofting's distinctive blend of simple prose and poetic passages reflecting both the innocence of childhood and the complexities of human animal relationships. Set against the backdrop of early 20th century England the book weaves together themes of empathy environmentalism and the quest for knowledge inviting readers to explore the interconnectedness of all living beings. Hugh Lofting an English author and civil engineer conceived Doctor Dolittle during World War I while serving in the trenches where he sought solace through storytelling. His experiences and observations of the natural world combined with a deep seated belief in the virtues of kindness and understanding toward animals shaped his creation of a character who transcends societal norms. Lofting's personal conviction that animals possess their own wisdom is evident throughout the narrative making it both a heartfelt tale and a critique of human hubris. This timeless classic is essential reading for anyone who cherishes imaginative storytelling that inspires curiosity and compassion. Lofting's extraordinary ability to bridge the gap between humanity and nature in The Story of Doctor Dolittle invites readers of all ages to reconsider their relationship with the animal kingdom and encourages a deeper appreciation for life in all its forms.

The Voyages of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting,1922 Doctor Dolittle heads for the high seas in perhaps the most amazing adventure ever experienced by man or animal. Told by nine and a half year old

Tommy Stubbins crewman and future naturalist the voyages of Doctor Dolittle and his company lead them to Spidermonkey Island Along with his faithful friends Polynesia the parrot and Chee Chee the monkey Doctor Dolittle survives a perilous shipwreck and lands on the mysterious floating island There he meets the wondrous Great Glass See Snail who holds the key to the greatest mystery of all The Story of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting, 2015-06-29 Doctor John Dolittle is the central character of a series of children's books by Hugh Lofting starting with the 1920 The Story of Doctor Dolittle He is a doctor who shuns human patients in favour of animals with whom he can speak in their own languages He later becomes a naturalist using his abilities to speak with animals to better understand nature and the history of the world Doctor Dolittle first appeared in the author's illustrated letters to children written from the trenches during World War I when actual news he later said was either too horrible or too dull The stories are set in early Victorian England where Doctor John Dolittle lives in the fictional English village of Puddleby on the Marsh in the West Country The Voyages of Doctor Dolittle Doctor Dolittle has a few close human friends including Tommy Stubbins and Matthew Mugg the Cats Meat Man The animal team includes Polynesia a parrot Gub Gub a pig Jip a dog Dab Dab a duck Chee Chee a monkey Too Too an owl the Pushmi pulyu and a White Mouse later named simply Whitey THERE are some of us now reaching middle age who discover themselves to be lamenting the past in one respect if in none other that there are no books written now for children comparable with those of thirty years ago I say written for children because the new psychological business of writing about them as though they were small pills or hatched in some especially scientific method is extremely popular today Writing for children rather than about them is very difficult as everybody who has tried it knows It can only be done I am convinced by somebody having a great deal of the child in his own outlook and sensibilities Such was the author of The Little Duke and The Dove in the Eagle's Nest such the author of A Flatiron for a Farthing and The Story of a Short Life Such above all the author of Alice in Wonderland Grownups imagine that they can do the trick by adopting baby language and talking down to their very critical audience There never was a greater mistake The imagination of the author must be a child's imagination and yet maturely consistent so that the White Queen in Alice for instance is seen just as a child would see her but she continues always herself through all her distressing adventures The supreme touch of the white rabbit pulling on his white gloves as he hastens is again absolutely the child's vision but the white rabbit as guide and introducer of Alice's adventures belongs to mature grown insight Geniuses are rare and without being at all an undue praiser of times past one can say without hesitation that until the appearance of Hugh Lofting the successor of Miss Yonge Mrs Ewing Mrs Gatty and Lewis Carroll had not appeared I remember the delight with which some six months ago I picked up the first Dolittle book in the Hampshire bookshop at Smith College in Northampton One of Mr Lofting's pictures was quite enough for me The picture that I lighted upon when I first opened the book was the one of the monkeys making a chain with their arms across the gulf Then I looked further and discovered Bumpo reading fairy stories to himself And then looked again and there was a picture of John Dolittle's house But pictures are not enough although most authors draw so badly that if one of them happens to have the genius for line that Mr Lofting shows there must be one feels something in his writing as well There is You cannot read the first paragraph of the book which begins in the right way Once upon a time without knowing that Mr Lofting believes in his story quite as much as he expects you to That is the first essential for a story teller Then you discover as you read on that he has the right eye for the right detail What child inquiring mind could resist this intriguing sentence to be found on the second page of the book

Lofting is the first of his Doctor Dolittle books a series of children's novels about a man who learns to talk to animals and becomes their champion around the world. It was one of the novels in the series which was adapted into the film Doctor Dolittle. Plot: John Dolittle MD is a respected physician and quiet bachelor living with his spinster sister in the small English village of Puddleby on the Marsh. His love of animals grows over the years and his household menagerie eventually scares off his human clientele leading to loss of wealth. But after learning the secret of speaking to all animals from his parrot Polynesia he takes up veterinary practice. His fortunes rise and fall again after a crocodile takes up residence leading to his sister leaving in disgust with the intention of getting married but his fame in the animal kingdom spreads throughout the world. He is conscripted into voyaging to Africa to cure a monkey epidemic just as he faces bankruptcy. He has to borrow supplies and a ship and sails with a crew of his favourite animals but is shipwrecked upon arriving to Africa. On the way to the monkey kingdom his band is arrested by the king of Jolliginki a victim of European exploitation who wants no white men travelling in his country. The band barely escapes by ruse but makes it to the monkey kingdom where things are dire indeed as a result of the raging epidemic. He vaccinates the well monkeys and nurses the sick back to health. In appreciation the monkeys find a pushmi pullyu a shy two headed gazelle unicorn cross whose rarity may bring Dr Dolittle money back home. On the return trip they again are captured in Jolliginki. This time they escape with the help of Prince Bumpo who gives them a ship in exchange for Dolittle's bleaching Bumpo's face white his greatest desire being to act as a European fairy tale prince. Dolittle's crew then have a couple of run ins with pirates leading to Dolittle's winning a pirate ship loaded with treasures and rescuing a boy whose uncle was abandoned on a rock island. After reuniting the two Dolittle finally makes it home and tours with the pushmi pullyu in a circus until he makes enough money to retire to his beloved home in Puddleby. Hugh John Lofting (14 January 1886 – 26 September 1947) was a British author trained as a civil engineer who created the character of Doctor Dolittle one of the classics of children's literature. Doctor Dolittle first appeared in the author's illustrated letters to his children written from the trenches while serving in the British Army during World War I. Personal life: Lofting was born in Maidenhead, Berkshire in January 1886 to parents of English and Irish ancestry. His eldest brother was Hilary Lofting who later became a novelist in Australia having emigrated there in 1915. Hugh Lofting was educated at Mount St Mary's College in Spinkhill, Derbyshire. From 1905 to 1906 he studied abroad studying civil engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the US. He travelled widely as a civil engineer before enlisting in the Irish Guards regiment of the British Army to serve in the First World War. The Story of Doctor Dolittle Hugh Lofting, 2022-12-04. John Doolittle is a kind hearted country physician who keeps goldfish in his pond rabbits in the pantry white mice in a piano and a hedgehog in the cellar. He also has an unusual gift he can talk to animals a talent that comes in handy since he prefers treating animals rather than humans as his patients. One day a mysterious call summons him to Africa where a serious epidemic has spread among the monkey population. Of course the good doctor sets out immediately with some of his best friends Jip the dog and Polynesia.
