Taking Aim:

Taking Aim! Marysol Nieves, 2011 Taking Aim The Business of Being an Artist Today is a practical affordable resource guide filled with invaluable advice for the emerging artist. The book is specially designed to aid visual artists in furthering their careers through unfiltered information about the business practices and idiosyncrasies of the contemporary art world. It demystifies often daunting and opaque practices through first hand testimonials, interviews and commentary from leading artists, curators, gallerists, collectors, critics, art consultants, arts administrators, art fair directors, auction house experts and other art world luminaries. Published in celebration of the 30th anniversary of Artist in the Marketplace AIM, the pioneering career development program at the Bronx Museum of the Arts, Taking AIM The Business of Being an Artist Today mirrors the structure and topics featured in the AIM program's weekly workshops and discussions. Each chapter focuses on the specific perspective of an art world insider from the artist to the public art program director to the blogger. Multiple viewpoints from a range of art professionals provide emerging artists with candid uncensored information and tools to help them better understand this complex field and develop strategies for building and sustaining successful careers as professional artists. The book ends with an annotated chronology of the past three decades in the contemporary art field and a bibliography of publications, magazine articles, online sources, funding sources, residency programs and other useful information for emerging artists.

Taking Aim Eva Shockey, A. J. Gregory, 2017-08-29 An acclaimed bow hunter who defies the stereotype that hunting is a man's game. Eva Shockey is at the forefront of a new wave of women and girls who are passionate about outdoor sports. Eva Shockey grew up expecting to be a dancer like her glamorous mother. But something about spending family vacations RV'ing across North America and going on hunts with her dad sparked in her an enduring passion for a different way of life. In Taking Aim Eva tells a very personal story of choosing the less traveled path to a rewarding life in outdoor pursuits like hunting and fishing. For her as her millions of fans can attest, that has meant hunting as a way of harvesting food, caring deeply about conservation, sustainability and healthy eating, and getting closer to God in nature. In this riveting memoir for the adventurer in all of us, Eva takes readers along as she hunts caribou on the rugged Aleutian Islands, tracks a 1,500-pound bull moose across the unforgiving Yukon, and meets many other challenges of a life in the wild. Along the way we learn that hunting is about so much more than pulling a trigger. My story is about discovering your dream, writes Eva. It's about following your passion, mastering your skills, taking aim no matter who thinks you're crazy, and then letting the arrow fly. If you've done all you can, I can tell you that you're almost certain to hit your mark. Whether you're a lifelong hunter or a city dweller who has never set foot in the wilderness, Eva's story delivers an empowering message about rejecting stereotypes and expectations, believing in yourself and finding the courage to pursue what you care about most.
