Storytime In Africa 2:

Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant,1986    Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant,1986    Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant,1987    The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt,Corinne Sandwith,2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J.

Herskovits Library of African Studies,1972    Libraries, Literacy, and African American Youth Sandra Hughes-Hassell,Paulette Brown Bracy,Casey H. Rawson,2016-10-31 This important book is a call to action for the library community to address the literacy and life outcome gaps impacting African American youth It provides strategies that enable school and public librarians to transform their services programs and collections to be more responsive to the literacy strengths experiences and needs of African American youth According to National Assessment of Educational Progress NEAP only 18 percent of African American fourth graders and 17 percent of African American eighth graders performed at or above proficiency in reading in 2013 This book draws on research from various academic fields to explore the issues surrounding African American literacy and to aid in developing culturally responsive school and library programs with the goal of helping to close the achievement gap and improve the quality of life for African American youth The book merges the work of its three authors along with the findings of other researchers and practitioners highlighting exemplary programs such as the award winning Pearl Bailey Library Program the Maker Jawn initiative at the Free Library of Philadelphia and the Blue Ribbon Mentor Advocate writing institute in the Chapel Hill Carrboro City Schools among others Readers will understand how these culturally responsive programs put theory and research based best practices into local action and see how to adapt them to meet the needs of their communities    Storytime in Africa Carolyn Stuyvesant,1987    Subject Catalog
