Strategic Family Play Therapy

Shlomo Ariel

Strategic Family Play Therapy:

Strategic Family Play Therapy Shlomo Ariel, 1992-05-12 Starting with a compelling experimental referent the make believe and fantasy play of children the author formulates a powerful psychodynamic view of strategic family therapy. Using his background in linguistics and semiotics he has created a therapy out of the play of parents and their children together with the therapist enabling the most painful family issues and intractable problems to be handled. Includes an explicit step by step presentation of the theoretical model the methodology and the specific techniques of diagnostic assessment and intervention all of which are illustrated by authentic case studies Journal of School Psychology, 1994

Foundations of Play Therapy Charles E. Schaefer, 2003-07-24 A guide to the many diverse approaches to play therapy methods used in clinical practice with children adolescents and adults. Provides detailed descriptions of all of the major theoretical models of play therapy and offers examples of how to apply each model in practice Counseling Children

Charles L. Thompson, Donna A. Henderson, 2007 This text covers the most practical and up to date methods that readers can use to develop effective approaches for counselling children. It defines and describes the counselling process answering questions often asked by first time counsellors Theories and Strategies of Family Therapy Jon Carlson, Diane Kjos, 2002

Theories and Strategies of Family Therapy complements and expands upon the Family Therapy with the Experts video series produced by the same authors. Twelve major theories of family therapy are presented. Most are written by the experts who appear in Allyn Bacon's Family Therapy with the Experts video series. Each chapter begins with a brief description of the theory and what makes it significant. The authors then delineate the clinical perspective and the way in which their approach deals with today's diverse family forms. The authors show how their theory is practiced by presenting ideas and then referencing sections in the corresponding video Play Diagnosis and Assessment Karen Gitlin-Weiner, Alice Sandgrund, Charles E. Schaefer, 2000-03-13 Through play children can express emotions that they cannot verbalise. This completely revised edition of a classic field leading resource explains to clinicians how best to identify children's problems using play therapy techniques Children's Imaginative Play Shlomo Ariel, 2002-06-30 The Child Psychology and Mental Health series is designed to capture dynamic interplay by advocating for strengthening the science of child development and linking the science to issues related to mental health child care parenting and public policy Exceptional Child

Education Resources, 1997 Creative Play in Family Therapy Lisa René Reynolds, 2025-04-23 This practical resource integrates family therapy theory with playful interventions and techniques to allow family therapists to successfully engage and include children in the session. Many therapists who are trained in family therapy lack training in child centered play techniques. This book effectively bridges the gap between popular theories and models in family therapy and the practice of working with children in a family context. Showcasing playful therapy techniques across and within each of the most common models of a family therapy such as Experiential Structural and Narrative Therapy and Psychodynamic and Cognitive

Behavioral Therapy CBT this book is accessible to a wide range of clinicians Additionally the author offers clear tangible interventions adaptable for both in person and teletherapy sessions This book is essential reading for practicing therapists students in training clinical supervisors and anyone who works with children in a therapeutic capacity

Strategies and Techniques in Family Therapy James C. Hansen,David Rosenthal,1981

Art Therapy and Dramatherapy Sue Jennings,Åse Minde,1993 The book explores the relationship and differences between art therapy and dramatherapy based on eight years of research and practice in training clinical practice and theory

Case Studies in Child and Adolescent Counseling Larry B. Golden,2002 This award winning book presents a realistic picture of therapy s rewards and challenges through sixteen actual cases involving children and adolescents Readers are exposed to a variety of counseling theories and the real live counselors who use them The cases deal with major problem areas such as sexual abuse dual diagnoses seriously dysfunctional families and addictions A five part organization of each case covers an introduction that discusses the presenting problem and background information about the client conceptualization of therapeutic goals and strategies process descriptions of actual client contacts it explains what happened in sessions and how the therapist s relationship with the client changed over time outcome sections describing the result of the work done between therapist and client and discussion explanations of what the author therapist might have done differently In addition the author describes his or her personal and professional growth that resulted from this encounter with a troubled youngster For child and adolescent counselors beginning their journey as therapists

Vondracek, Sherry Corneal, 1995 This practical and comprehensive book covers both the important theoretical underpinnings of the how to of each of today's major strategies from cognitive psychoanalytic and behavioral approaches to less frequently discussed approaches such as dance music and art therapy. The authors cover a wide variety of topics not usually covered in books of this kind including drug biofeedback and career therapy Strategies for Counseling with Children and Their Parents Geraldine Leitl Orton, 1997 This practice oriented text provides practical strategies for counseling children and their families. The author stresses that children must be evaluated in terms of their whole environment including whatever positive and or negative parental influence exists. The author focuses on ways to involve parents in the counseling process. Because all children need to be approached as individuals the author equips readers with the skills they need to be flexible and adaptive. A range of assessment and counseling techniques are presented including play art and bibliotherapy to give counselors diverse options. Case studies and dialogues illustrate how these techniques can be applied in practice. The book stresses that no one theory of practice can fit all children and adolescents Foundations of Clinical and Counseling Psychology Judith Todd, Arthur C. Bohart, 1994 Covers the foundations of professional psychology in the real world and offers the fundamental theories methods and empirical findings.
