The Exercise of the Spatial Imagination in Pre-Modern China Garret Pagenstecher Olberding,2022-02-07 This volume is distinctive for its extraordinarily interdisciplinary investigations into a little discussed topic the spatial imagination It probes the exercise of the spatial imagination in pre modern China across five general areas pictorial representation literary description cartographic mappings and the intertwining of heavenly and earthly space It recommends that the spatial imagination in the pre modern world cannot adequately be captured using a linear militarily framed conceptualization The scope and varying perspectives on the spatial imagination analyzed in the volume s essays reveal a complex range of aspects that informs how space was designed and utilized Due to the complexity and advanced scholarly level of the papers the primary readership will be other scholars and advanced graduate students in history history of science geography art history religious studies literature and broadly sinology

Iconographic Exegesis and Third Isaiah Izaak Jozias Hulster,2009

Although scholars employ pictorial material in biblical exegesis the question of how images from the Ancient Near East can contribute to a better understanding of the Bible has been left unanswered This is the first monograph to outline a historical method for iconographic exegesis The methodological study includes both responses to important theoretical questions such as What is an image and What is culture and an interdisciplinary exploration of issues of history art history archaeology and cultural anthropology The three stage method proposed is embedded in hermeneutical and exegetical reflections The application of iconographical exegesis to the interpretation of metaphors is also considered In demonstrating the method and its application Izaak J de Hulster focuses on Third Isaiah and develops three iconographical exegetical studies on yad in Isaiah 56 5 light in Isaiah 60 and grape processing in Isaiah 63
