Colonial Continuities and Decoloniality in the French-Speaking World Sarah Arens, Nicola Frith, Jonathan Lewis, Rebekah Vince, 2024-02-06 This volume pays tribute to the work of Professor Kate Marsh 1974-2019 an outstanding scholar whose research covered an extraordinarily wide range of interests and approaches encompassing the history of empire, literature, politics and cultural production across the Francophone world from the eighteenth to the twenty-first century. Each of the chapters within engages with a different aspect of Marsh's interest in French colonialism and the entanglements of its complex afterlives, whether it be her interest in the longevity of imperial rivalries, loss and colonial nostalgia, exoticism and the female body, decolonization and the ends of empire, the French colonial imagination, the policing of racialized bodies or anti-colonial activism and resistance. As well as reflecting the geographical and intellectual breadth of Marsh's research, the volume demonstrates how her work continues to resonate with emerging scholarship around decoloniality, transcolonial mobilities and anti-colonial resistance in the Francophone world. From French India to Algeria and from the Caribbean to contemporary France, this collection demonstrates the persistent relevance of Marsh's scholarship to the histories and legacies of empire while opening up conversations about its implications for decolonial approaches to imperial histories and the future of Francophone Postcolonial Studies.

Toussaint Louverture Philippe Girard, 2016-11-22 The definitive biography of the Haitian revolutionary Toussaint Louverture, leader of the only successful slave revolt in world history. Toussaint Louverture's life was one of hardship, triumph and contradiction. Born into bondage in Saint Domingue (present-day Haiti), the richest colony in the Western Hemisphere, he witnessed first-hand the torture of the enslaved population. Yet he managed to secure his freedom and establish himself as a small-scale planter. He even purchased slaves of his own. In Toussaint Louverture, Philippe Girard reveals the dramatic story of how Louverture transformed himself from lowly freedman to revolutionary hero In 1791 the unassuming Louverture masterminded the only successful slave revolt in history By 1801 he was general and governor of Saint Domingue and an international statesman who forged treaties with Britain France Spain and the United States empires that feared the effect his example would have on their slave regimes Louverture's ascendancy was short lived however In 1802 he was exiled to France dying soon after as one of the most famous men in the world variously feared and celebrated as the Black Napoleon As Girard shows in life Louverture was not an idealist but an ambitious pragmatist He strove not only for abolition and independence but to build Saint Domingue's economic might and elevate his own social standing He helped free Saint Domingue's slaves yet immediately restricted their rights in the interests of protecting the island's sugar production He ward off French invasions but embraced the cultural model of the French gentility In death Louverture quickly passed into legend his memory inspiring abolitionist black nationalist and anti colonialist movements well into the 20th century Deeply researched and bracingly original Toussaint Louverture is the definitive biography of one of the most influential people of his era or any other
