Signature Art Prize 2018, 2018

The Asia Pacific Breweries APB Foundation Signature Art Prize is a triennial celebration of the best in contemporary art from Asia Pacific and Central Asia. Inaugurated by the APB Foundation and the Singapore Art Museum in 2008, it recognises the most outstanding examples of contemporary art produced in the preceding three years. This year, the fourth edition of the prize features 113 nominated works put forward for consideration by 38 nominators from 46 different countries, territories and regions, with Central Asia being included for the first time. An international jury selected 15 finalists from the list of nominated works, which are included in the exhibition, and from which four prize winners are chosen. The works foreground new material and conceptual trajectories in contemporary art making and speak to the myriad social, historical, and cultural complexities of Asia today.

A Collection of Gesture-Signs and Signals of the North American Indians with some comparisons Garrick Mallery, 1880

Shakespeareana, 1884. With vol 6 was issued The Teachers supplement Conducted by W S Allis no 1 2 May Oct 1889

Tavern Signs of America Helene Smith, 1989. Only comprehensive book on subject. The history of America reflected on tavern signs advertising the town centers before there were court houses, schools, community centers, and restaurants. A window view of what tavern life was like back when political issues were settled around a tavern table and cock fights and public hangings were the entertainment of the day in a so-called less violent era, the good old days.

Signing the Contract, and what it Cost Martha Finley, 1879. The sun had set amid angry clouds, deep shadows already filled the recesses of the forest through which the iron horse went thundering on its way while an icy wind bringing with it frequent dashes of rain and sleet swept through the leafless branches of the trees, tossing them wildly against a dull leaden sky. A lady gazing out into the gathering gloom started with a sudden exclamation of surprise and dismay. Her husband leaned hastily past her to see what had called it forth, then with a smile at his own folly in forgetting that at the rate of speed with which they were moving the object whatever it might be was already out of sight, settled himself back again, bending a look of mild inquiry upon her agitated countenance. She shivered and drawing her shawl more closely about her, put her lips to his ear that she might be heard above the noise of the train.

Set Me Free (Show Me a Sign, Book 2) Ann Clare LeZotte, 2021-09-21. A riveting standalone companion to the Schneider Family Book Award winner Show Me a Sign by deaf author and librarian Ann Clare LeZotte. Instantly captivating, will keep readers hooked until the very end. A simultaneously touching and gripping adventure. Kirkus Reviews: Full of adventure and twists, a gripping tale of historical fiction. Booklist: Mary seems set to become a true hero, adventurer, an almost larger-than-life sleuth, teacher, and woman of action, and while the story's subject matter is serious in its engagement with history's ills LeZotte conveys a sense of real enjoyment in having Mary disrupt the prejudices and expectations of the status quo The Horn Book Three years after being kidnapped as a live specimen in a cruel experiment to determine the cause of her deafness Mary Lambert has grown weary of domestic life on Martha's Vineyard and even of her once beloved writing So when an old acquaintance summons her to an isolated manor house outside Boston to teach a young deaf girl to communicate Mary agrees But can a child of eight with no prior language be taught And is Mary up to the task With newfound purpose Mary arrives only to discover that there is much more to the girl's story and the circumstances of her confinement than she ever could have imagined Suddenly teaching her and freeing her from the prison of her isolation takes on much greater meaning and peril Riveting and complex delicately nuanced and fervently feminist Set Me Free is a masterful stand alone companion to Show Me a Sign and a searing expose of ableism racism and colonialism that will challenge you to think differently about the dignity and capacity within every human being
