Slightly Dangerous:

Slightly Dangerous Mary Balogh, 2004-06-01 BONUS This edition contains an excerpt from Mary Balogh's The Secret Mistress. All of London is abuzz over the imminent arrival of Wulfric Bedwyn, the reclusive cold as ice Duke of Bewcastle at the most glittering social event of the season. Some whisper of a tragic love affair. Others say he is so aloof and passionless that not even the greatest beauty could capture his attention. But on this dazzling afternoon, one woman did catch the duke's eye, and she was the only female in the room who wasn't even trying. Christine Derrick is intrigued by the handsome duke all the more so when he invites her to become his mistress. What red-blooded woman wouldn't enjoy a tumble in the bedsheets with a consummate lover with no strings and no questions asked? An infuriating lady with very definite views on men, morals, and marriage. Christine confounds Wulfric at every turn. Yet even as the lone wolf of the Bedwyn clan vows to seduce her any way he can, something strange and wonderful is happening. Now for a man who thought he'd never lose his heart, nothing less than love will do. With her trademark wit, riveting storytelling, and sizzling sexual sparks, Mary Balogh once again brings together two polar opposites: an irresistible high and mighty aristocrat and the impulsive pleasure-loving woman who shows him what true passion is all about. A man and a woman so wrong for each other, it can result only in the perfect match. Our Last Mission Dawn Trimble Bunyak, 2005-08-01 In this remarkable tale of courage, historian Dawn Trimble Bunyak recounts the experiences of her uncle, Lawrence Pifer, a technical sergeant who survived fourteen months of internment as a prisoner of war in World War II Nazi Germany. A radio operator and ball turret gunner on the American B-17 bomber, Slightly Dangerous, Pifer was shot down during a raid on March 4, 1944. As he parachuted from the plummeting plane, Pifer witnessed the deaths of two of his fellow crewmembers. Captured by Nazi soldiers and taken to a series of German Stalag Luft camps, Pifer and other servicemen, mostly in their teens and twenties, endured torture, starvation, disease, and forced marches. When British forces liberated Pifer's group, he pushed his POW experiences deep into the recesses of his mind, not to recall them in detail for decades. Years later, a POW group at a Veterans Administration hospital helped Pifer realize that he was ready to tell his story. After forty hours of interviews with Pifer, Dawn Trimble Bunyak retells the enthralling story of an average enlisted man's struggle to survive in the face of hopelessness with only his strong faith and pride in country to sustain him. In his foreword, historian Arnold Krammer shows how popular views of the prisoner of war experience have changed dramatically over time, yet how rare are such first-person accounts as Pifer's. Enhanced by numerous photographs and maps, and an appendix of prisoners' poetry, Our Last Mission is one of only a few oral histories that details the daily experiences of one of the 94,000 American POWs in Europe during World War II. Modes of Truth Carlo Nicolai, Johannes Stern, 2021-03-30 The aim of this volume is to open up new perspectives and to raise new research questions about a unified approach to truth modalities and propositional attitudes. The volume's essays are grouped thematically around different research questions. The first theme concerns the tension between the theoretical role of the truth predicate in semantics and its expressive function in language The second theme of the volume concerns the interaction of truth with modal and doxastic notions The third theme covers higher order solutions to the semantic and modal paradoxes providing an alternative to first order solutions embraced in the first two themes This book will be of interest to researchers working in epistemology logic philosophy of logic philosophy of language philosophy of mathematics and semantics The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
