The Royal Court Theatre and the Modern Stage

Philip Roberts, 1999-11-25 The Royal Court Theatre is one of the primary forums in the development of post war drama Under the title of the English Stage Company the theatre's house actors and dramatists commissioned and produced some of the most influential plays in modern theatre history including the works of Caryl Churchill, Harold Pinter and Caryl Churchill The story of the Royal Court is also the history of the contemporary stage In this absorbing account of the theatre's history from 1956 to 1998 Philip Roberts draws on previously unpublished archives in both public and private collections and a series of interviews with people prominent in the Court's life The book also includes a Foreword by the former Director of the Royal Court Max Stafford Clark The result is an intimate account of the working of the foremost house of modern drama and its relationships to the world of the theatre in Britain and abroad

The Icing on the Cake Annabel Morley, 2013-11-01 With her grandmother the society beauty Dame Gladys Cooper and her father the renowned actor Robert Morley CBE Annabel Morley was always going to lead an extraordinary life Evoking an English childhood from a bygone era Annabel Morley brings back to life the magic and charm of growing up in a bohemian artistic and quintessentially English family Their house in Berkshire is the backdrop to a wonderful array of events and personalities Often surrounded by the greats of theatre such as Vivien Lee Lawrence Olivier and Spencer Tracy Annabel recounts these times with such wit and affection The Icing on the Cake features unpublished photographs of the Morley lives as well as private letters and personal memories including her travels to Sydney Venice and Hollywood during the glamorous 1940s and 50s The book displays how Annabel s passion for the theatre is also matched by her love of food and family including recipes served at family get togethers on both sides of the word
