Skills in Neighbourhood Work Paul Henderson,David N. Thomas,1987     Skills in Neighbourhood Work - 2nd Paul Henderson,David N. Thomas,1987     The Making of Community Work David N. Thomas,2024-11-01 Originally published in 1983 The Making of Community Work is the outcome of a two year study of community work in the United Kingdom The main purpose of the study was to review the development of community work and to suggest some of the issues in practice and training that might be important in the 1980s Much of the first part of the book is taken up with the emergence of community work as an occupation David Thomas tries to clarify its contribution to a number of political and social processes and to define community work in a way which distinguishes it from other kinds of interventions The second part of the book deals with training research literature and employment in community work it includes a review of college and field based training opportunities and a critical discussion of the state of theory and ideology in the occupation It was hoped it would be an important source of ideas and inspiration for the years ahead It was the first major review of community work since its re discovery in the 1960s it will still be of interest to all those involved in community work or wishing to understand its influence on other professions The book was intended for fieldworkers administrators policy makers trainers and students in community work and in related occupations and disciplines Thomas presents his ideas clearly and his ability to look critically at some of the basic assumptions in community work makes for stimulating and enjoyable reading     Community Work and Community Development Antoinette Lombard,1992     Social Work David Streatfield,1982     Social Work ,1981

Work Improvement in Neighbourhood Development ,2003     Contemporary Social Work ,1999     Knowledge and Skills for Community Work ,1975     Community Work and the Probation Service Paul Henderson,1991 In recent years the Probation Service has nearly doubled in size has been given new responsibilities and inevitably developed more bureaucratic organizational structures How these changes have affected the traditional community based nature of its work is the backdrop to this study The Journal of Applied Social Sciences ,1996 The Social Services Bibliography, 1980-1985 Max McMurdo,1985 Social Work Today ,1979 Modern Social Work Theory Malcolm Payne,2005 This third edition is substantially revised and updated It offers extended coverage of many new areas of debate including evidence based practice social construction attachment theory and cultural diversity It also incorporates a variety of innovative devices to support learning whether in the classroom the workplace or while undertaking independent study Students practitioners and lecturers alike will find this third edition a vital investment and an invaluable companion Book Jacket

Person-centred Communication Hanka Dorothee Grobler,2003 How can you enable people to develop themselves How do you build a relationship of trust with a community How do you create an environment in which clients respond positively Facilitators from various professions will find that the second edition of Person centred Communication continues to enhance their communication listening and empathic skills It demonstrates how to live the values of the person centred approach developed by Carl Rogers by showing respect for clients and empowering them to take responsibility for themselves Building on the feedback from readers of the first edition this new edition focuses even more strongly on the self including the self of the facilitator The importance of self reflection thought processes values and actions are creatively addressed This is an indispensable guide to working with individuals groups and communities in a humane and respectful way Community Work in a Rural Health and Social Services District John Conlon,1977 Schools and Social Work Margaret Robinson,1978 SWT, Social Work Today ,1985
