Skip Bombing In Rabaul Harbor:

Skip Bombing James T. Murphy, A. B. Feuer, 1993-05-24 Murphy was one of a very small number of volunteer pilots who with their flight crews started bombing at low altitudes in B 17 flying fortresses in the Southwest Pacific. The aircraft were flown at a 200 foot altitude and at 250 miles per hour at night. One thousand pound bombs equipped with four to five second fuses were dropped from the B 17s. On March 3 1943 the Japanese made a desperate move to resupply their forces on New Guinea. Twenty two cargo transport and war ships proceeded toward New Guinea using bad weather for cover. They were found in the Bismarck Sea. The Allied Air Forces using skip bombing sank all twenty two Japanese ships. Murphy was credited with sinking nine Japanese ships during his year of combat including one in the Bismarck Sea battle. Skip bombing became a tactic that helped the U S win the war in the South Pacific. Air Force Magazine ,1990 A War of Their Own:

Bombers Over the Southwest Pacific [Illustrated Edition] Captain Matt Rodman, 2014-08-15 Illustrated with more than 45 diagrams, photos and tables. Captain Rodman, an instructor weapon systems officer at Dyess AFB Texas, examines the distinctive nature of Fifth Air Force's role in the air war over the Southwest Pacific Area during World War II. Especially notable is Gen. George Kenney's innovative use of light attack aircraft as well as both medium and heavy bombardment aircraft characterized by theater specific tactics, ordnance and structural modifications. A War of Their Own also considers the free exchange of aircraft and missions in the Southwest Pacific, a hallmark of that theater in terms of the conflict between doctrine and tactics that underlay Fifth Air Force's relationship to the prewar Army Air Corps and the postwar Air Force. The author also notes the relevance of the Fifth's experiences to airpower. Reports of General MacArthur: sup. MacArthur in Japan : The occupation : Military phase Douglas MacArthur, 1966. Reports of General MacArthur are the official after action reports of General of the Army Douglas MacArthur. Long out of print, this facsimile edition contains not only MacArthur's own perspective of his operations against the Japanese in the Southwest Pacific Area during World War II but also the enemy's unique account of Imperial Army campaigns against MacArthur's forces. Collectively, the reports have substantial and enduring value for military historians and students of military affairs, providing an illuminating record of momentous events influenced in large measure by a distinguished soldier and towering figure in American historiography. <https://history.army.mil>
