The Big World Of Love:

Reclaiming the Great World House Lewis V. Baldwin, Vicki L. Crawford, 2019 Reclaiming the Great World House in the 21st Century Cross Disciplinary Explorations of the Vision of Martin Luther King Jr does just that Established and emerging scholars explore Martin Luther King Jr s global vision and his lasting relevance to a globalized rights culture The editors further explain that this edited collection looks at King afresh in his own historical context while also refocusing his legacy of ideas and social praxis in broader directions for today and tomorrow Employing King s metaphor of the great world house with major attention to racism poverty and war or what he called the evil triumvirate the focus is on King s appraisal of and approach to the global human struggle in the 1950s and 60s and on the extent to which his social witness and praxis takes on new hues and pertinence not only in the ongoing struggles against racism poverty and economic injustice and violence and human destruction but also in the mounting efforts to eliminate problems such sexism homophobia and religious bigotry and intolerance from the global landscape The conclusion is that King s ideas and models of social protest are not only alive but also growing in vitality and popularity in the 21st century especially as humans worldwide are struggling daily with the lingering antiquated thinking and behavior around race and ethnicity the widening gap between the haves and the have nots the mounting cycles of violence torture and terrorism and the frustrating and growing chasms resulting from religious pluralism and the subordination and marginalization of certain sectors of the human family based on gender and sexuality

A Romance of Two Worlds Marie Corelli, 1896 A Romance of Two Worlds starts with a young heroine in first person telling her story of a debilitating illness that includes depression and thoughts of suicide Her doctor is unable to help her and sends her off on a holiday where she meets a mystical character by the name of Raffello Cellini a famous Italian artist Cellini offers her a strange potion which immediately puts her into a tranquil slumber in which she experiences divine visions Upon waking she craves more Later she meets her unnamed guardian angel who whisks her through infinite solar systems faster than a shooting star while human spirits fly by like gossamer silk He shares the truth of religion and the secret of human destiny but still she longs for more She comes to understand God as pure light and pure love but it is not enough that she should see and hear these things from the touch of an angel She wants to master this ability on her own and seeks a oneness with God through a series of meditative disciplines while locked away in a monastery

Wikipedia Love and Sexuality in Dystopian Fiction. An Analysis of "Brave New World" and "Nineteen Eighty-Four" Lena Gräf, 2016-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2/3 language English abstract This term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in Brave New World and 1984 and if there are any similarities between them Furthermore we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society What is the attitude towards marriage these days And what is the role of love in all of that After this we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means Ever since Thomas More's Utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels In Thomas More's times his depictions were ground breaking Women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 In the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 Furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time More lived in This clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels They imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world And since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society When looking for the most famous dystopian novels on Google two that are immediately suggested are Brave New World by Aldous Huxley and 1984 by George Orwell Both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex
