Twenty-six Years' Reminiscences of Scotch Grouse Moors W. A. Adams, 1889 My grouse shooting days are now past Increasing years and rheumatic muscles remind me that I have had my time and a very good time too so now let younger men take my place and profit by my experience if it should so please them Let us look back on grouse shooting twenty six years ago Scotland so far as regards the sporting of the far north was then almost a terra incognita Railways ended at Inverness and to get there needed a journey to Aberdeen and from there by the slowest of slow railways but quick enough life was not run at so fast a pace as now The more remote districts of the north and west of Scotland were as unknown as the wilds of

Labrador Previous to that time grouse shooting was for the few we were content with our English shootings and very nice and pleasant they were Every farmer if the shooting was in his take preserved his game he shot it or he let it The stubbles were long and full of weeds the old pastures full of feg and there was plenty of clover but turnips not so much grown as now excepting in the eastern counties about which I know very little the hedges and ditches not kept clean as they are now

Selected Works of William Henry Davenport Adams William Henry Davenport Adams, 2020-09-28 The Princess Helena Koltzoff Massalsky better known by her pseudonym of Dora d Istria came of the family of the Ghikas formerly princes of Wallachia and was born at Bucharest on the 22nd of January 1829 Through the care and conscientiousness of her instructor Mons Papadopoulos and her own remarkable capacity she acquired a very complete and comprehensive education When but eleven years old she composed a charming little story and before she had reached womanhood undertook a translation of the Iliad She showed no inclination for the frivolous amusements of a frivolous society Her view of life and its responsibilities was a serious one and she addressed all her energies to the work of self improvement and self culture She read and re read the literary masterpieces of England France and Germany As a linguist she earned special distinction Her intellectual faculties says her master M Papadopoulos expanded with so much rapidity that the professors charged with her instruction could not keep any other pupil abreast of her in the same studies Not only did she make a wholly unexpected and un hoped for progress but it became necessary for her teachers to employ with her a particular method her genius could not submit to the restraint of ordinary rules She was still in the springtime and flush of youth when she went on a tour to Germany and visited several German courts where she excited the same sentiments of admiration as in her own country it was impossible to see her without being attracted by so much intellect grace and amiability Travelling enlarged her horizon she was able to survey as from a watch tower the course of great political events and she found herself mixing continually with the most celebrated savants and statesmen of the age Her friendly relations with persons of very diverse opinions while enabling her to compare and contrast a great variety of theories did but strengthen in her the idea and sentiment of liberty which can alone conduct society to its true aim Finally from the Italian revolution of 1848 which awoke her warmest sympathies she learned to understand the fatal consequences of despotic government as well as the inevitable mistakes of freedom when first unfettered and allowed to walk alone At the age of twenty she was married February 1849 and soon afterwards she set out for St Petersburg where she was recognised as the ornament of the higher society In the midst of her numerous engagements in the midst of the homage rendered to her wit and grace she found time to collect a mass of valuable notes on the condition and inner life of the great Russian Empire several provinces of which she knew from personal observation From St Petersburg to Moscow from Odessa to Revel her untiring activity carried her Most social questions are at work under an apparent calm and offer therefore subjects well worthy of careful study especially to so grave and clear an intellect as that of Princess Dora d Istria who possessed in the highest degree the faculty of steady meditation amidst the movement and the world stir that surrounded her The world charmed by her personal attractions had no suspicion of the restlessness and activity of her inquiring mind World on a String Jane Yolen,1969 Describes the history of the kite its use in sport recreation science and war and its many variations of form and design Notes and Queries ,1872 The ornithology of Shakespeare critically examined, explained and illustrated James Edmund Harting,1871 A Woman's War Record, 1861-1865 Septima Maria Collis,2020-09-28 I have no hesitation in calling what I am about to write a war record for my life was twice in jeopardy as will be seen later on and I served faithfully as a volunteer though without compensation during the entire war of the Rebellion It is true I was not in the ranks but I was at the front and perhaps had a more continuous experience of army life during those four terribly eventful years than any other woman of the North Born in Charleston S C my sympathies were naturally with the South but on December 9 1861 I became a Union woman by marrying a Northern soldier in Philadelphia The romance which resulted in this desertion to the enemy would perhaps interest the reader yet I do not propose to tell it for I am sure the very realistic life which it enabled me to experience for three winters in camp at army head quarters will interest him more My first commander was Gen Nathaniel P Banks to whom I reported on December 11 1861 at Frederick Md where my bridegroom was then a captain of an independent company which he named and equipped as Zouaves d Afrique The army being in winter quarters a general disposition prevailed among officers and men to make the season pass merrily Though the war had by this time assumed serious proportions and the battle of Bull Run had been fought yet there were many who still believed that the counsels of peace and forbearance would prevail and that the conflict would be of short duration and this I remember was the daily theme of discussion Frederick had become a garrisoned town every train bringing troops and supplies army wagons and their four mule teams had possession of the streets while the sidewalks and shop windows were monopolized by the volunteer officers in their bright buttons and gold lace who permitted themselves to be disturbed only by the appearance of a pretty face or by the steady tread of the patrol with their white gloves and polished rifles My apartments in Frederick consisted of two very modest third story rooms sparsely furnished with the use of a kitchen at a cheap rent for we neither of us had any money yet we indulged in the luxury of the best cook in the army no other than Nunzio Finelli one of our zouaves who was afterwards the steward of the Union League of Philadelphia and a renowned restaurateur in the same city Finelli was then a very young man with a face as handsome as the famous Neapolitan boy in the picture and a voice as sweet and sympathetic as Brignoli s A most obliging disposition and a fondness for operatic music made him therefore a great acquisition to our little household and many an omelette souffl was first beaten into snowflakes while the dulcet and plaintive notes of Ah che la morte or Spirito gentil reaching the street detained the spellbound passers by and sometimes when his friend and compatriot Constantino Calarisi another zouave joined him in the kitchen we were treated to a duet which even Patti would have applauded for they were both very remarkable singers Poor Finelli a few months later a bullet at the battle of Cedar Mountain terribly disfigured him and when I next saw him the shape of his injured nose reminded me of the inhabitants of the Ghetto Peter Penniless, Gamekeeper and Gentleman
