The Doctors Confession:

The Doctor's Story Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2025-09-09 A rare lost to time story from the 1 New York Times bestselling mystery author and the American Agatha Christie returns to print Watson's Magazine originally published Mary Roberts Rinehart's The Doctor's Story as a serial in 1906 It was the early days of her long career as a prolific and popular mystery writer with numerous novels plays and short stories to her credit But The Doctor's Story was never reprinted after its initial publication not even in any of her short fiction collections Now mystery readers and scholars can read Rinehart's seminal tale written the same year Watson's serialized The Man in the Lower Ten which she later developed into a bestselling novel three years later Set in the mountains of rural Maine a surgeon named Carter finds himself far from civilization at St John's estate Laurelcrest an imposing mansion of turrets nestled against a forest Within its walls is a dimly lit maze of rooms and hallways presenting a haunting atmosphere where one could glimpse something spectral in the concealing shadows Featuring a depth of characterization and a multifaceted plotline which the author brought to her best mysteries The Doctor's Story is a long overdue and welcome release for both Mary Roberts Rinehart and cozy mystery fans This edition includes a special introduction from Rinehart's grandson Rick Rinehart

Confession John Henry Wilbrandt Stuckenberg, 1897 Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France Nora Martin Peterson, 2016-09-14 Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France was inspired by the observation that small slips of the flesh involuntary confessions of the flesh are omnipresent in early modern texts of many kinds These slips which bear similarities to what we would today call the Freudian slip disrupt and destabilize readings of body self and text three categories whose mutual boundaries this book seeks to soften but also in their very messiness participate in defining them Involuntary Confessions capitalizes on the uncertainty of such volatile moments arguing that it is instability itself that provides the tools to navigate and understand the complexity of the early modern world Rather than locate the body within any one discourse Foucauldian psychoanalytic this book argues that slips of the flesh create a liminal space not exactly outside of discourse but not necessarily subject to it either Involuntary confessions of the flesh reveal the perpetual and urgent challenge of early modern thinkers to textually confront and define the often tenuous relationship between the body and the self By eluding and frustrating attempts to contain it the early modern body reveals that truth is as much about surfaces as it is about interior depth and that the self is fruitfully perpetuated by the conflict that proceeds from seemingly irreconcilable narratives Interdisciplinary in its scope Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France pairs major French literary works of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries by Marguerite de Navarre Montaigne Madame de Lafayette with cultural documents confession manuals legal documents about the application of torture and courtly handbooks It is the first study of its kind to bring these discourses into thematic rather than linear or chronological dialog In so doing it emphasizes the shared struggle of many different early modern conversations to come to terms with the body's volatility Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Budget story books Budget story books,1894 A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm,Cheryl Alexander Malcolm,2008-10-20 A COMPANION TO THE BRITISH AND IRISH SHORT STORY A COMPANION TO THE BRITISH AND IRISH SHORT STORY A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story chronicles the development of this important literary form in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Part I covers the years up to 1945 and examines the short fiction that emerged around such themes as imperial adventures responses to war and detective and crime stories Authors covered in this period include Robert Louis Stevenson James Joyce Liam O Flaherty and Elizabeth Bowen Part II reflects the range of themes and richer diversity of authorship that developed during the postwar years including feminist writings gay and lesbian fiction science fiction fantasy and short stories by Asian and Afro Caribbean writers Doris Lessing Angela Carter Hanif Kureishi J G Ballard and Ben Okri are just some of the authors discussed in these chapters Incorporating a wide range of approaches A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story captures the astonishing range of modern short fiction produced in Britain and Ireland from the end of the nineteenth century Thomas Carlyle, the story of his life and writings [by R. and M.
