The Discourses:

The Discourses of Epictetus Epictetus, 1877 Reading Acts in the Discourses of Masculinity and Politics Eric Barreto, Matthew L. Skinner, Steve Walton, 2017-01-12 This book looks at the Acts of the Apostles through two lenses that highlight the two topics of masculinity and politics Acts is rich in relevant material whether this be in the range of such characters as the Ethiopian eunuch Cornelius Peter and Paul or in situations such as Timothy's circumcision and Paul's encounters with Roman rulers in different cities Engaging Acts from these two distinct but related perspectives illuminates features of this book which are otherwise easily missed These approaches provide fresh angles to see how men masculinity and imperial loyalty were understood experienced and constructed in the ancient world and in earliest Christianity The essays present a range of topics some engage with Acts as a whole as in Steve Walton's chapter on the way Luke Acts perceives the Roman Empire while others focus on particular sections passages and even certain figures such as in an Christopher Stroup's analysis of the circumcision of Timothy Together the essays provide a tightly woven and deeply textured analysis of Acts The dialogue form of essay and response will encourage readers to develop their own critiques of the points raised in the collection as a whole

appear to be good and the introductions to each section help to situate the writers in their historical and intellectual context and to alert students to some of the central issues that arise in the texts This book offers an economical and useful approach to modern political thought Hymns, Ode and Discourses Rhode Island Baptist State Convention, 1875 Journal of Biblical Literature , 1890 Language as Behaviour, Language as Code Lynne Young, 1990-01-01 This work arose from the desire to teach foreign students in North America a particular variety of language used in their disciplines speech situations whereupon the inadequacy or non existence of previous study became apparent Given this raison d etre the work first illustrates one approach to the analysis of language in order to test whether something of significance can be said about the typology of texts and discourse The approach chosen is Systemic Functional Grammar with its roots in the Prague School of Linguistics and the London School of J R Firth a theory that is particularly able to show how situational factors affect codal choices Secondly the author proceeds to use this theory and one language variety academic speech to illustrate the influence of speech situational components on the codal selections in the language variety Since the impetus for the work is pedagogical the book concludes with a brief reappraisal of the analysis model and a discussion of some of the pedagogical implications stemming from the analysis Since the work is also theoretical the implications of the study for the model of grammar are thoroughly explored Religious Individualisation Martin Fuchs, Antje Linkenbach, Martin Mulsow, Bernd-Christian Otto, Rahul Björn Parson, Jörg Rüpke, 2019-12-16 This volume brings together key findings of the long term research project Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective Max Weber Centre for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies Erfurt University Combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in Asia the Mediterranean and Europe from antiquity to the recent past Contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially Western or Christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non Western and pre modern scenarios Furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality The life of Jesus critically examined, tr.
