Wolfkiller Harvey Leake,2009-09 A page turning epic with life lessons from a Navajo shepherd The Detective as Historian Ray Browne, Lawrence Kreiser,2009-03-26 Deeper understanding of history is enhanced by encasing it in art and interest Crime fiction is one of the widest and most rapidly growing forms of literature Historical crime fiction serves effectively the double purpose of entertaining while it teaches The truth of the narrative account the editors of this volume believe is dependent on the understanding of human nature reflected in the author who writes the narrative Historical crime fiction the editors of this volume write has an obligation and a golden opportunity It must bring the past up to the present through the device of timeless crime and it must take the reader into the world about which is being written so that the characters are alive and the events interesting and challenging Professional writers of fiction need to be more effective than mere authors of dates and assumed motivations Therefore they can fill in human motivations and drives where no records exist and can aid the professional historians in what historian David Thelen calls the challenge of history which is to recover the past and interpret it for the present The essays in this volume accept the challenge and make major accomplishments for meeting it The Dream Stalker Margaret Coel,1998-09-01 New York Times bestselling author Margaret Coel s acclaimed Wind River mysteries shouldn t be missed by anyone interested in either new trends in mystery writing or contemporary American Indian culture She s a master at both Tony Hillerman With promises of new jobs and millions in revenue the Wind River Reservation agrees to use their land for a nuclear storage site But Arapaho attorney Vicky Holden is not willing to let this happen And with help from Father John O Malley she sets out to protect the land and her people But someone involved wants to keep Vicky and anyone else who stands in the way quiet When a man is murdered and two attempts are made on

Vicky's life she knows the stakes have been raised Now Vicky and Father John must search through false promises and misguided dreams to find the truth of this harrowing crime and restore the true spirit and dreams of the Arapaho
