The Teacher's Guide introduces the key concepts and the analytical tool required and explores ways in which they can be applied to the study of the media and film in the classroom. This Guide is structured in three parts: an introduction to the core concepts, practices and terminologies; an exploration of the ideas, issues and debates that stem from textual analysis including representation, genre and ideology; and an introduction to the key theories and critical approaches including feminist theory, Marxism, structuralism and auteur theory. Throughout a range of popular and accessible case studies, show textual analysis and film and media theory in practice including The Matrix Reloaded, Six Feet Under, Moulin Rouge and Ken Loach's Sweet Sixteen.

Teaching Analysis of Film Language David Wharton, Jeremy Grant, 2005-09-30 Combining the creative perspectives of filmmakers with more analytic academic methods, this study invites film students to take an active approach in learning to understand how audiovisual language is used to create meaning in films. While the main focus is on the concept of film language, case study readings of The Warrior 2002 and Traffic 2001 place these films in their institutional contexts to demonstrate the multifaceted nature of how meaning is created. This study gives particular emphasis to understanding cinematography, editing, music and setting. Students are encouraged to reflect on their own responses and develop reading skills through a range of online classroom activities that demonstrate how audience interaction works to create meaning in film. Technical terms and techniques are explained in an extensive glossary and in special explanatory sections illustrated by a range of films.

Teaching Men and Film Matthew Hall, 2005-11-02 Examining the changes in male roles and how these changes are explored in cinema, this book includes frameworks for teaching the topic and accessible explanations of the cultural and critical background to changes in male roles. It provides in-depth film case studies that explore the changes and challenges to masculinity in the 21st century.

Total Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood, 2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace, People to People and cultural exchange programs. Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U.S.

psychological operations in some three dozen countries, he tells how U.S. propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world: its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all. Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion. He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik.
