Landscapes of Hope

Dohra Ahmad, 2009-03-02 Landscapes of Hope Anti Colonial Utopianism in America examines anti colonial discourse during the understudied but critical period before World War Two with a specific focus on writers and activists based in the United States Dohra Ahmad adds to the fields of American Studies utopian studies and postcolonial theory by situating this growing anti colonial literature as part of an American utopian tradition In the key early decades of the twentieth century Ahmad shows the intellectuals of the colonized world carried out the heady work of imagining independent states often from a position of exile Faced with that daunting task many of them composed literary texts novels poems contemplative essays in order to conceptualize the new societies they sought Beginning by exploring some of the conventions of American utopian fiction at the turn of the century Landscapes of Hope goes on to show the surprising ways in which writers such as W E B Du Bois Pauline Hopkins Rabindranath Tagore and Punjabi nationalist Lala Lajpat Rai appropriated and adapted those utopian conventions toward their own end of global colored emancipation Cosmopolitanism in the Fictive Imagination of W. E. B. Du Bois

Samuel O. Doku, 2015-12-03 This book traces W E B Du Bois's fictionalization of history in his five major works of fiction and in his debut short story The Souls of Black Folk through a thematic framework of cosmopolitanism In texts like The Negro and Black Folk Then and Now Du Bois argues that the human race originated from a single source a claim authenticated by anthropologists and the Human Genome Project This book breaks new ground by demonstrating the fashion in which the variants of cosmopolitanism become a profound theme in Du Bois's contribution to fiction In general cosmopolitanism claims that people belong to a single community informed by common moral values function through a shared economic nomenclature and are part of political systems grounded in mutual respect This book addresses Du Bois's works as important additions to the academy and makes a significant contribution to literature by first demonstrating the way in which fiction could be utilized in discussing historical accounts in order to reach a global audience The Coming of John The Quest of the Silver Fleece Dark Princess A Romance and The Black Flame an important trilogy published sequentially as The Ordeal of Mansart Mansart Builds a School and Worlds of Color are grounded in historical occurrences and administer as social histories providing commentary on Reconstruction Jim Crow segregation African American leadership school desegregation the Pan African movement imperialism and colonialism in Africa Asia and the Caribbean
