The Deaf Mute Heroine:

A Cultural History of Disability in the Long Nineteenth Century Joyce L. Huff, Martha Stoddard Holmes, 2023-05-17 The long 19th century stretching from the start of the American Revolution in 1776 to the end of World War I in 1918 was a pivotal period in the history of disability for the Western world and the cultures under its imperial sway Industrialization was a major factor in the changing landscape of disability providing new adaptive technologies and means of access while simultaneously contributing to the creation of a mass produced environment hostile to bodies and minds that did not adhere to emerging norms In defining disability medical views which framed disabilities as problems to be solved competed with discourses from such diverse realms as religion entertainment education and literature Disabled writers and activists generated important counternarratives made increasingly available through the spread of print culture An essential resource for researchers scholars and students of history literature culture and education A Cultural History of Disability in the Long Nineteenth Century includes chapters on atypical bodies mobility impairment chronic pain and illness blindness deafness speech dysfluencies learning difficulties and mental health with 37 illustrations drawn from period sources Kung Fu Cult Masters Leon Hunt, 2003 Chinese Martial Arts films have captured audiences imaginations around the world In this wide ranging study Hunt looks at the mythic allure of the Shaolin Temple the Clones of Bruce Lee gender bending swordswomen and the knockabout comedy of Sammo Hung bringing new insights to a hugely popular and yet critically neglected genre 12 photos Beyond Bombshells Jeffrey A. Brown, 2015-09-09 Beyond Bombshells analyzes the cultural importance of strong women in a variety of current media forms Action heroines are now more popular in movies comic books television and literature than they have ever been Their spectacular presence represents shifting ideas about female agency power and sexuality Beyond Bombshells explores how action heroines reveal and reconfigure perceptions about how and why women are capable of physically dominating roles in modern fiction indicating the various strategies used to contain and or exploit female violence Focusing on a range of successful and controversial recent heroines in the mass media including Katniss Everdeen from The Hunger Games books and movies Lisbeth Salander from The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo novels and films and Hit Girl from the Kick Ass movies and comic books Jeffrey A Brown argues that the role of action heroine reveals evolving beliefs about femininity While women in action roles are still heavily sexualized and objectified they also challenge preconceived myths about normal or culturally appropriate gender behavior The ascribed sexuality of modern heroines remains Brown s consistent theme particularly how objectification intersects with issues of racial stereotyping romantic fantasies images of violent adolescent and preadolescent girls and neoliberal feminist revolutionary parables Individual chapters study the gendered dynamics of torture in action films the role of women in partnerships with male colleagues young women as well as revolutionary leaders in dystopic societies adolescent sexuality and romance in action narratives the historical import of nonwhite heroines and how modern African American Asian and Latina heroines both challenge and are restricted by longstanding racial stereotypes Transnationalism and the Asian American Heroine Lan Dong,2014-01-10

This collection examines transnational Asian American women characters in various fictional narratives It analyzes how certain heroines who are culturally rooted in Asian regions have been transformed and re imagined in America playing significant roles in Asian American literary studies as well as community life The interdisciplinary essays display refreshing perspectives in Asian American literary studies and transnational feminism from four continents Remember 202
