The Death Disciple:

Death's Disciple Emma L. Adams, 2023-05-30 Seven years ago Captain Yala Palathar was a hero She and her squad of close knit dragon riding warriors were Laria s elite fighting for their nation alongside the monarch and his magic wielding Disciples Seizing control of an unmanned island should have been a simple mission but Yala s squad was little prepared for the horror and tragedy that awaited Instead of triumph all Yala and her allies found was death Years on Yala lives in seclusion in the deep jungle ignoring the rumours of unrest in the capital following the end of the war She little expects assassins to find her hideout nor does she anticipate the mission that ended her career to have given rise to rumours that see her targeted by mercenaries vying to claim a price on her head With the other survivors from her squad being picked off one by one she has little choice but to return to the capital in the hopes of finding answers Whether the truth lies with the Disciples of the Flame who refused to believe her stories of the monstrous beasts that haunted the island or with the long dead king who sent her squad to their doom one thing is clear Yala must finish the battle she started all those years ago even if it brings her face to face with the god of death Himself Death s Disciple is the first in a dark epic fantasy quartet featuring giant war dragons political intrigue flawed heroes and nail biting action For fans of character driven fantasy by authors such as Anna Stephens Jen Williams and Tamsyn Muir

Namibia Evangelical Theological Seminary NETS The authors are young southern African theologians and practitioners While they come from different countries and church backgrounds they all share a commitment to Gospel centred mission and church ministry Simba Musvamhiri Zimbabwe looks at the discipleship process in a fast growing evangelical charismatic church in Namibia s capital Windhoek He argues that attractive services and a strong preaching and teaching ministry as well as a focus on hospitality are no guarantee that church members are fully committed to follow Jesus Christ in all areas of life and on a daily basis What is needed is a relational and transferable discipleship process which equips all church members whether they are students young professionals or other community members to move towards spiritual maturity Peter Koono Tefo Lesotho demonstrates the importance of pastoral visitation in the southern African context According to Tefo there is a direct correlation between the frequency and quality of pastoral visits by church leaders and active participation in the life of a local congregation by church members Abednigo Musona Zimbabwe examines the relationship between church leadership and the level of participation of church members in congregational programmes and fluctuations in church membership respectively He argues that a church leadership which follows Biblical principles is more likely to achieve spiritual and numerical growth Finally Zeka Avelino Tjiwana Namibia explores the situation of young church members in the north of Namibia He shows that due to the absence of youth ministry guidelines and a lack of spiritually mature and well trained youth leaders emotional and spiritual problems of young people are not properly addressed

Charlesworth, 1995 The Gospel of John refers five times to the disciple whom Jesus loved From the second through the present century scholars have sought to identify this disciple traditionally concluding that he is the author of the Gospel and is indeed none other than John the son of Zebedee In recent phases of research however the identification of the Beloved Disciple with John the son of Zebedee has been exposed as weak and unpersuasive Yet according to James Charlesworth even this new research is problematic in that it tends to ascribe priority in discerning the meaning of the Gospel of John to documents other than the Gospel itself Moreover this research tends to impute historical accuracy to documents that were not primarily intended to present histories Based on extensive research then Professor Charlesworth has concluded that the primary texts in the Gospel of John and the reflections of modern scholars indicate that any identification of the Beloved Disciple whether with one of the disciples specified in the Gospel with one who is anonymous in this Gospel or with some
