The Devil And Daniel Silverman:

The Devil and Daniel Silverman Theodore Roszak, 2003 Danny Silverman's first novel reached 10 on the New York Times best seller list but that was 20 years ago. Now middle aged he and his partner Martin an African American actor are getting by on the residuals from Martin's cancelled TV cop series when Danny gets an offer he can't refuse a speaking gig in a Minnesota bible college that will net him a small fortune. Why me Silverman wonders but he'll take the money and run. What can happen. Only a record breaking snowstorm that traps him under the same roof as the evangelical Christian faculty who see this Jewish homosexual writer from San Francisco as the incarnation of the anti Christ. Forced to defend all he believes in sexual equality human rights same sex marriage dancing vodka coffee Silverman finds himself on the front lines of the culture wars dividing the nation today. Best known as a social historian Theodore Roszak is also the author of cult status novels such as Flicker a Hollywood horror satire and The Memoirs of Elizabeth Frankenstein a sensual retelling of the gothic classic. Here Roszak brings us a hilarious novel of politics and ideas in which the battle for the moral heart of America is waged between a college full of scripture spouting fundamentalists and one gay humanist who thinks they're full of crap.

Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver, 2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century. The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers. The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor. Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it. This stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society. This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption. Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots. By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community. Princeton Alumni Weekly, 2002

Epiphanies Ann Jauregui, 2003 In a quiet moment in therapy a breakthrough comes the miracle of the new Epiphany is defined by Webster's as a sudden insight into the reality or essential meaning of something. But my favorite part of the definition says psychotherapist Ann Jauregui tells us that the revelation is usually brought on by some simple homely or commonplace experience. Something big is occasioned by something little something easily missed. And it unfolds from there sometimes as a flash sometimes in exquisite slow motion out of conventional time and space and language. Look at this you whisper as you see something about the universe you've never seen before. And look at this you whisper too seeing yourself seeing it The universe is bigger than it was a minute ago and so are you In this intimate lyrical integration of psychology and spirituality Dr Jauregui shares the stories of nine clients casting light on moments that just came bringing surprise comfort and joy Shyly we venture out with these stories she writes into a world still in the thrall of a reluctant science and its cousin a reluctant psychotherapy We are the beneficiaries invited into a sparkling conversation that explores these life changing surprises and our own The Publishers Weekly, 2002 A Time for Choices Michael Toms, 2002 In the months after 9 11 Michael Toms selected and interviewed people from a diverse range of professions and perspectives in a quest to uncover responses to encourage dialogue and to present voices and views not being heard in the American mass media The result is this collection of wisdom from more than forty leading thinkers educators political analysts activists social innovators clergy journalists philosophers and spiritual teachers These are the voices of the fourth branch of government the bedrock of American democracy the people speaking out and questioning American values and policy The dialogues are grouped in nine sections that address concerns ranging from democracy peace and security to the spiritual dimension and the role of the media They include such luminaries as Terry Tempest Williams Paul Hawken Howard Zinn Susan Griffin John Mohawk Amy Goodman Joanna Macy Vicki Robin and Thomas Moore A Time for Choices will appeal to all seeking to understand the deeper roots of the crises facing the U S A Book jacket New York Time Out, 2003 Written by a team of resident journalists so that the true flavour of the city can be captured this guide gives independent impartial advice to inform and entertain More than 700 venues are reviewed and all price ranges and tastes are covered Supernatural Literature of the World: P-Z S.
