

Mark Scheme

The 11+ Creative Writing Paper is not included in all 11+ examination papers and is not a requirement set by all grammar schools. When it is included as part of the 11+ examinations, the way in which the paper is marked can differ between examination boards and consortiums.

The mark scheme provided here suggests ideas for tutors to use when marking the work completed by students on the 11+ Creative Writing Baseline Assessment Papers. Tutors can use these ideas as an initial starting point but should also refer to guidance set by the examination board that is relevant to each of their 11+ students' chosen grammar school(s).

English 3-11 David G. Waugh, Wendy Jolliffe, 2008 In line with the National Primary Strategy this core introductory textbook provides comprehensive up to date and most importantly creative guidance on teaching English in the early years and primary classroom Covering all of the key curriculum areas in manageable and accessible chapters the book aims to motivate and support teachers to achieve enjoyment progression breadth and balance in their teaching of effective and creative English Key topics covered include assessment for learning co operative learning popular culture and multi media By combining both subject knowledge with effective pedagogical approaches to teaching English this book is an essential one stop resource for all busy teachers EUDISED European Educational Research Yearbook 1997/98, 1999 Assessing Children's Mathematical Knowledge Barry Cooper, Máiréad Dunne, 2000 In many countries the lives of teachers and children are increasingly dominated by programmes of national testing of mathematics and other subjects In England the majority of the items in such tests have set mathematical tasks in every day situations such as shopping Assessing Children's Mathematical Knowledge draws on the analysis of National Curriculum test data from more than 600 children of 10 11 and 13-14 years of age as well as in depth interviews with 250 of these as they attempt to solve test problems in order to explore the nature of the difficulties children experience with realistic items. The book shows by comparing test and interview data that many children as a consequence of their confusion over the requirements of realistic test items fail in tests to demonstrate mathematical knowledge and understanding that they actually possess. The book also explores whether this problem of invalid measurement is equally spread across children from different social backgrounds and across the sexes. The book will be of interest to academics and teachers studying for advanced degrees in mathematics education, sociology of education and educational assessment.
