Technology Policy for Small Developing Countries David J. C. Forsyth,1990    Technology Policies for Small Developing Economies Norman Girvan,1983    Information Technology Management in Developing Countries Dadashzadeh, Mohammad,2001-07-01 The IT revolution has affected the entire world by producing a new Internet based digital economy The challenges faced by developing countries in harnessing the full potential of IT are not really very different from those that confronted the US in its journey toward the Internet economy Information Technology Management in Developing Countries discusses the possible pitfalls and triumphs involved when implementing this entity into the structure of a developing country    Innovation Management and Growth in Emerging Economies Webb, Heather C.,Wu, Wendy,Al Numairy, Hussain,2020-10-23 Despite its economic impact understanding what shaped emerging economies success seems to be a mystery These complexities are compounded by fast moving technologies such as the increased usage of artificial intelligence AI and the internet of things IoT These new technologies have a social impact but it is how these impacts are developed and managed by people and companies that is significant Similarly it is important to investigate how the uncertainties and intangible factors are dealt with and how businesses can utilize innovative approaches to become adaptive in emerging market economies Research is needed to determine how actors or businesses interact to shape and define either new institutions new industries or new innovation to meet the need of potential customers in emerging economies Innovation Management and Growth in Emerging Economies explores how innovation from emerging economies is being developed through strategic choices and presents the benefits and the drawbacks the processes and the characteristics and management practices of both private and or public organizations The chapters identify the trends and approaches to innovation development as well as the strategies of adapting and converting threats and challenges into opportunities The target audience of this book is composed of practitioners policy influencers course instructors professionals academicians students and researchers in the fields of business administrative sciences management and economics    Science, Technology Policy and the Diffusion of Knowledge Tim Turpin,V. V. Krishna,2007-01-01 The Asia Pacific has emerged as one of the most dynamic regions in the world presenting a variety of social and economic experiences and responses to global pressures In this book twelve country case studies explore the ways in which national science technology and innovation policies are evolving in response to globalization The editors argue that the national innovation system NIS perspective is driving policy regimes toward new approaches in policy intervention Underlying the new policy agenda is a concern with reframing the role for science technology and innovation institutions including higher education and integrating local community national and global technology objectives Presenting a broad analysis the book will be of great interest to policy analysts and practitioners concerned with science technology and innovation policy It will also appeal to academic and postgraduate students concerned with innovation and industrial development as well as scholars and practitioners engaged in regional development and international business in the Asia pacific region Research Handbook on Innovation Governance for Emerging Economies Stefan Kuhlmann,Gonzalo Ordóñez-Matamoros,2017-01-27 Although in recent years some emerging economies have improved their performance in terms of R D investment outputs and innovative capacity these countries are still blighted by extreme poverty inequality and social exclusion Hence emerging countries are exposed to conditions which differ quite substantially from the dominant OECD model of innovation policy for development and welfare This Research Handbook contributes to the debate by looking at how innovation theory policy and practice interact and explains different types of configurations in countries that are characterized by two contrasting but mutually reinforcing features systemic failure and resourcefulness Focusing on innovation governance and public policies it aims to understand related governance failures and to explore options for alternative more efficient approaches Foreign Assistance and Related Programs Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1978 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations,1977
