Technology-Based Training for Older Employees, 2014 Technology based training is being increasingly adopted by organizations of all sizes It allows employers to cut costs and to train more employees at the same time However arguably the greatest benefit of computer based training is that it is very flexible and can be customized to the needs of the organization as well as to the individual needs of the trainees This paper explores what adjustments can be made to computerized training programs for older employees to make their learning most effective The results of the literature review show that older adults benefit from simple and consistent interface design large font and empty video background instructional coherence redundancy error management approaches and goal setting strategies Specific goals are better than general goals and learning goals are more effective than performance goals Conceptual mapping was found to be a very effective metacognitive strategy Previous experience with technology was an important factor in predicting older trainees cognitive workload and frustration levels Some of these factors especially those oriented towards reducing cognitive load may be equally helpful for younger trainees however some like redundancy may be detrimental to younger trainees learning More research is needed to determine the interaction between individual variables and different training strategies

Technology Based Employee Training and Organizational Performance Asad Afzal Humayoun,Ahmed Imran Hunjra,Kashif ur Rehman,2011-10 The ever growing complexity and variability in the business environment followed by a sharp change in the technology the organizations as well as the aggressive competition needs use all of their resources to achieve the competitive advantage in the industry and the most consistent and important source of competitive advantage is the skilled workers The success in the business depends solely on the faithful and loyal workers and it is undesirable fact that the HR practice is an important source of the work relations In the light of current situation the focus of this study is to use the relevant technology in the training process and its implications for the organizational activities being an intermediary factor with refund to the targeting consumer workers This study helps both the Islamic conventional banking and the corporate leaders It also helps them to identify and recognize the importance of the technology based training in support of the customer orientation of the employees to achieve the critical business goals through the implementation of these types of sports activities in their organization as well     E-Learning Gaurav Chadha,S. M. Nafay Kumail,2002 E learning has transformed the traditional premise of educational theorists Educationists and business strategists worldwide have been compelled to think out of the classroom and reflect on ways to create theories and strategies around teaching and learning online The premise of this book is e learning is realistic and has a definite framework to it The framework might require tailoring depending on the business context and desired learning outcomes but it definitely requires a great deal of belief commitment and interest from business leaders to accelerate their attempt at creating and building institutions The book is an outcome of the experience of two young practitioners encompassing various areas such as understanding the client needs and proposing appropriate e learning solutions designing course material for e learning products applying old and new instructional strategies developing CBTs and WBTs and evaluating learning products and solutions for learning effectiveness The book collates the essence of the best lessons on e learning from a practical view point and presents a case for designing cost effective systems which corporates as well as educational institutions may use for enhancing productivity and learning in their organisations It takes a three dimensional view of e learning content services and technology the various evident and not so evident issues related to implementing e learning in organisations and takes a peek into the future of e learning Book jacket
