The Dehumanization Of Man:

The Dehumanization of Man Ashley Montagu, Floyd W. Matson, 1983 Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the Contemporary Humanist Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen's contribution to humanity and society It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective explores Fulton Sheen's perception of the contemporary individual and demonstrates that global economic religious and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness people are still frustrated disillusioned cynical bored and suicidal This book enters the landscape of Sheen's controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen's Christian anthropology wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society Karl Marx Otto Rühle, 2013-09-05 First published in English in 1929 this is a reissue of Otto Rühle's comprehensive biography of Karl Marx Written by a leading Marxist and key figure within the German Labour movement this is an exceptionally detailed and well researched study which sets Marx's life and work firmly within its social and historical context before examining in depth the major events of his life and the writings for which he has become such an influential figure in modern political philosophy The final chapter offers an appraisal of both the man and his work as Rühle summarises why he believes Marx was a genius A New Wave of Anti-Racism in Europe? Ilke Adam, Jean Beaman, Mariska Jung, 2025-10-31 This open access book provides a way to understand the current manifestations of anti racism in Europe including changes that became particularly visible with the Black Lives Matter related protests beginning in May 2020 The so called new anti racism is often described as being led by racialized minorities themselves foregrounding structural racism and drawing connections between contemporary racism and the colonial past But are these features truly new And can we speak of a new wave of anti racism and what does wave thinking clarify or obscure The chapters in this volume explore anti racist struggles and practices across a range of European contexts tracing both change and continuity over time They illuminate how several features of antiracism now considered distinctive including the leadership by racialized minorities have deep roots though they were pushed to the margins unrecorded or silenced by the mainstream Today these voices are beginning to rise echoing sometimes modestly in the centre By providing a solid empirical portrait of current and past anti racist movements in different parts of Europe this book is a vital resource for students and scholars of race anti racism and migration in Europe as well as for activists and policy makers navigating the evolving terrain of anti racist thought and action Karl Marx Otto Rühle, 1929 ARTnews , 1953 Dehumanizing Women Linda LeMoncheck, 1985-06-28 The book is designed to be of interest to women's studies students wishing an introduction to a specifically philosophical analysis of the problem of sex objectification as well as to philosophers

Luchins, Edith H. Luchins, 1978 The Case for Gay Rights David A. J.
