The Delight Makers:

The delight makers A.F. A. Bandelier, 1949 The Delight Makers Adolph Francis Alphonse Bandelier, 2019-12-04

Adolph Francis Alphonse Bandelier's The Delight Makers is a compelling exploration of the rich cultural tapestry of the Pueblo Indians intricately woven into the fabric of an engaging narrative. Written in the late 19th century, the novel masterfully blends elements of historical fiction and ethnographic detail, presenting a vivid portrayal of pre-Columbian life in the American Southwest. Through its lyrical prose and vivid imagery, Bandelier vividly captures the spiritual and ritualistic dimensions of Pueblo society, all while critiquing the encroachment of European culture and its impact on indigenous traditions. Bandelier, an influential archaeologist and ethnologist, devoted much of his life to the study of Native American cultures, particularly the Pueblos. His firsthand experiences in the Southwest, coupled with his academic background, offered him a unique perspective to both celebrate and lament the complexities of Native existence. This duality informs the themes of his work, allowing readers to engage with the characters' struggles and triumphs amid a rapidly changing world. For readers interested in the intersections of anthropology, history, and literature, The Delight Makers is an essential reading experience. Bandelier's insightful commentary and rich narrative style provide a profound understanding of a culture that remains relevant today, urging a reflection on the importance of heritage and identity amidst modernity. The Delight Makers (Classic Reprint) Adolf F. Bandelier, 2015-07-13

Excerpt from The Delight Makers: This story is the result of eight years spent in ethnological and archaeological study among the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico. The first chapters were written more than six years ago at the Pueblo of Cochiti. The greater part was composed in 1885 at Santa Fe, after I had bestowed upon the Tehuans the same interest and attention I had previously paid to their neighbours, the Queres. I was prompted to perform the work by a conviction that however scientific works may tell the truth about the Indian, they exercise always a limited influence upon the general public, and to that public in our country as well as abroad the Indian has remained as good as unknown. By clothing sober facts in the garb of romance, I have hoped to make the Truth about the Pueblo Indians more accessible and perhaps more acceptable to the public in general. The sober facts which I desire to convey may be divided into three classes: geographical, archaeological, and ethnological. The descriptions of the country and of its nature are real.
