The Dartmouth Experience:

Generation at the Crossroads Paul Rogat Loeb, 1994 Challenging prevailing media stereotypes Generation at the Crossroads explores the beliefs and choices of the students who came of age in the 1980s and 1990s For seven years at over a hundred campuses in thirty states Paul Loeb asked students about the values they held He examines their concepts of responsibility the links they draw between present and future and how they view themselves in relation to the larger human community in which they live He brings us a range of voices from I m not that kind of person to I had to take a stand Loeb looks at how the rest of us can serve young people as better role models and give them courage and vision to help build a better world This insightful book explores the culture of withdrawal that dominated American campuses through most of the eighties He locates its roots in historical ignorance relentless individualism mistrust of social movements and a general isolation from urgent realities He examines why a steadily increasing minority has begun to take on critical public issues whether environmental activism apartheid hunger and homelessness affordable education or racial and sexual equity Loeb looks at individuals who have overcome precisely the barriers he has described and how their journeys can become models The generational choices he explores will shape our common future Hate Speech on Campus Milton Heumann, Thomas W.
