The Death Mazurka Charles M. Fishman,1989 Historical events however consequential reduce easily to abstractions that quantify rather than qualify Statistics however disturbing distance us from the responses that they should elicit Lest we become anesthetized we turn to fiction or poetry to searing imagery and compression of language that crystallize for us the immeasurable elements of historic tragedy A delicate and brave retelling of the Holocaust The Death Mazurka rediscovers the human equation numbers assume faces in a catalog of events that dance hauntingly before us As the most humanistic of histories this tight cycle of poems is riveting as art it engraves an unforgettable portrait of pain and beauty What Charles Fishman has choreographed memory will not relinquish
