Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural

Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home. Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction, postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction, this book highlights their solutions to ontological division, real vs. imaginary, worldly and otherworldly, sociocultural oppositions of race, class, gender, and narratological dualities: imitation vs. invention, realism vs. formalism. A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction, narrative and cultural articulation. Stepping back from traditional polarizations, innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities, excluded middles, and creative intercrossings.
