A Social Philosophy of Housing Peter King, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This text seeks to show the importance of housing to individuals and in the broader context of social welfare It offers a universal philosophical justification for housing provision based on a detailed theoretical consideration of need choice rights and responsibility The implications of basing housing policies on these concepts are considered Dr Peter King suggests that we should see housing as above all a pre requisite for human flourishing As such it is an essentially private activity As a consequence he argues housing policy should be limited to a consideration of the enhancement of the personal fulfilment of individuals rather than seeking to further collective or utilitarian ends Dr King's purpose in this book is to explore housing using the techniques and methods of social philosophy He seeks to combat relativist approaches to housing discourse with a theoretical appreciation of housing based on universalist principles derived from Kant and Nozick The book therefore addresses housing issues with a philosophical rigour but without ignoring key policy debates

Naturalism and Social Philosophy Martin Hartmann, Arvi Särkelä, 2023-01-30 Can societies fall ill Can institutions die or social practices degenerate Must social norms be embodied To what extent is social action habitual Is social life part of nature or does it transcend it This book explores the meaning and many facets of naturalism in social philosophy It investigates the consequences of concepts such as second nature and forms of life for social philosophy It analyses the ways in which social action gender work and morality are embodied It surveys the conceptions of nature at play in social criticism It provides students and experts of social philosophy with both an overview and critical analyses of the many facets of naturalism in social philosophy from Hegel to contemporary critical theory Contributors Louis Carr Fabian Freyenhagen Martin Hartmann Axel Honneth Thomas Khurana Steven Levine Sabina Lovibond Arvi Särkelä Barbara Stiegler Mariana Teixeira Italo Testa

Social Philosophy (RLE Social Theory) Hans Fink, 2014-08-07 The programmes of political parties and movements are attempts to formulate policies or guidelines in relation to social change Social philosophy concerns the fundamental issues on which those programmes divide This introductory work gives an account of several highly influential systems of social philosophy systems which serve as the landmarks by reference to which modern discussions still orientate themselves The description of various stages in the history of social philosophy is set within an account of its changing social environment from feudalism and the philosophy of Aquinas to the rise of the working class and socialism The book confines itself to the Western tradition and one could say that it charts the rise and fall of the free market as the central institution and the key to the understanding of society cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader s Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader s Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion

Philosophy M. Bunge, 2012-12-06 The purpose of this Introduction is to sketch our approach to the study of value morality and action and to show the place we assign it in the system of human knowledge 1 VALUE MORALITY AND ACTION FACT

THEORY AND METATHEORY We take it that all animals evaluate some things and some processes and that some of them learn the social behavior patterns we call moral principles and even act according to them at least some of the time An animal incapable of evaluating anything would be very short lived and a social animal that did not observe the accepted social behavior patterns would be punished These are facts about values morals and behavior patterns they are incorporated into the bodies of animals or the structure of social groups We distinguish then the facts of valuation morality and action from the study of such facts This study can be scientific philosophic or both wayan animal evaluates environmental A zoologist may investigate the or internal stimuli a social psychologist may examine the way children learn or fail to learn certain values and norms when placed in certain environments And a philosopher may study such descriptive or explanatory studies with a view to evaluating valuations moral norms or behavior patterns he may analyze the very concepts of value morals and action as well as their cognates or he may criticize or reconstruct value beliefs moral norms and action plans
