The Blackwell Companion to Major Classical Social Theorists George Ritzer, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Major Classical Social Theorists provides a comprehensive review of classical social theory. Containing original essays especially commissioned for this volume, leading experts and practitioners examine the life and work of 12 major theorists. Includes 12 original essays by leading scholars on major classical social theorists. Covers the key figures who shaped social theory such as Marx, Weber, and Durkheim, as well as additional classical theorists such as Harriet Martineau and W. E. B. Du Bois. Essays include biographical sketches, the social and intellectual context, and the impact of the thinker's work on social theory generally. Includes bibliographies of the theorist's most important works as well as key secondary works. Can be used in conjunction with The Blackwell Companion to Major Contemporary Social Theorists edited by George Ritzer for a complete reference source in social theory.

Overcoming Obstacles in Environmental Policymaking John K. Gamman, 1994-12-05 This book examines why policies and laws intended to protect the environment often do not work. In particular, Gamman addresses the fundamental reasons why efforts to protect natural resources in the developing world generally fail. He describes why environmental initiatives originating in national governments, international foreign assistance agencies, and environmental groups suffer from a dysfunctional decision-making process. And he suggests how to improve environmental policymaking by creating partnerships for sustainable development, showing how to do this with a step-by-step negotiation process.

Artificial Social Systems Cristiano Castelfranchi, 1994-07-13 This volume contains thoroughly refereed versions of the best papers presented at the 4th European Workshop on Modelling Autonomous Agents in a Multi-Agent World, held July 29-31, 1992, in S. Martino al Cimino, Italy. The book opens with an introductory survey by the volume editors, not only on the collection of papers but also on the history and present situation of Distributed Artificial Intelligence (DAI) and its interdisciplinary relations to social sciences, artificial life, and economics. The 19 technical papers are organized into sections on artificial life and reactive systems, economics and game theory, coordination and multi-agent planning, and DAI tools and applications.

The Struggle Over Work Shaun Wilson, 2004-07-31 The future of work in advanced industrial democracies is the subject of intense debate and public concern. Despite predictions that working hours would fall and leisure time would rise as society progressed, the opposite has in fact occurred. This new book contains a twofold investigation into the end of work, with theoretical and policy angles contributing to the growing research field on the boundaries of economics and sociology.

Ri Im Sociology Schaefer, 2002-07

Science of Goal Formulation Stuart A. Umpleby, 1990-12-01 This work contains the proceedings of a meeting held by 18 American and Soviet scholars on the state of cybernetics and systems theory in their two countries. American interest focused on the observation of systems, whilst Soviet interest focused on mathematical modelling.
