Stanley J. Grenz

Social God:

The Social God and the Relational Self Stanley J. Grenz, 2001-01-01 In this the first of a six volume contribution to systematic theology Grenz creatively extends the insights of contemporary Trinitarian thought to theological anthropology. The Social God and the Relational Self is an example of theological construction as an ongoing conversation involving biblical texts the theological heritage of the Christian tradition and the contemporary historical social context

God's

Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology. Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church. Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations. These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit. Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other. This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action

The Social God Kenneth Leech, 2003-10-28 The central theme of The Social God is the belief that God is social and that both Christian prayer and Christian social action are rooted in the nature of God. Christian action in the fields of social justice and the political arena is rooted in Christian doctrine. The Social God stresses the essential unity of doctrine and action of prayer and politics examining the Christian understanding of God and his relationship with the world. Kenneth Leech emphasizes the centrality of the Incarnation and reveals the other aspects of Christian spirituality the dangers of a new fascism and the need for a renewal of Christian theology

Relational Spirituality Todd W. Hall, 2021-05-25

Human beings are fundamentally relational we develop, heal and grow through relationships. Integrating insights from psychology and theology Todd W Hall and M Elizabeth Lewis Hall present a definitive model of spiritual transformation based on a relational paradigm showing how transformation works practically in the context of relationships and community

Christianity in Evolution Jack Mahoney, 2011-08-01 Evolution has provided a new understanding of reality with revolutionary consequences for Christianity. In an evolutionary perspective the incarnation involved God entering the evolving human species to help it imitate the trinitarian altruism in whose image it was created and counter its tendency to self absorption. Primarily however the evolutionary achievement of Jesus was to confront and overcome death in an act of cosmic significance ushering humanity into the culminating stage of its evolutionary destiny the full sharing of God's inner life Previously such doctrines as original sin the fall sacrifice and atonement stemmed from viewing death as the penalty for sin and are shown not only to have serious difficulties in themselves but also to emerge from a Jewish culture preoccupied with sin and sacrifice that could not otherwise account for death The death of Jesus on the cross is now seen as saving humanity not from sin but from individual extinction and meaninglessness Death is now seen as a normal process that affect all living things and the religious doctrines connected with explaining it in humans are no longer required or justified Similar evolutionary implications are explored affecting other subjects of Christian belief including the Church the Eucharist priesthood and moral behavior
