Social Psychophysiology John T. Cacioppo,1983    Social Psychophysiology and Emotion Hugh L. Wagner,1988 An up to date discussion of a wide and representative range of areas in a field of growing interest The international contributors many of whom are established authorities in the field discuss applications to clinical issues and emotion theory    Handbook of Social Psychophysiology Hugh L. Wagner,A. S. R. Manstead,1989 There is a long tradition of theory and research on emotions and social processes conducted within a biological framework Emotions and social processes are intimately related since emotions are a central feature of social interaction The chapters in the first three parts of this volume demonstrate the wide range of approaches and problems in the biological psychology of emotions followed by further chapters which examine the current state of research in those areas of social psychology in which psychophysiological methods or constructs are already prominent or likely to play a role in contributing to a greater understanding of the subject    Handbook of

Psychology, Personality and Social Psychology Irving B. Weiner,Howard A. Tennen,Jerry M. Suls,2012-10-10 Psychology is of interest to academics from many fields as well as to the thousands of academic and clinical psychologists and general public who can t help but be interested in learning more about why humans think and behave as they do This award winning twelve volume reference covers every aspect of the ever fascinating discipline of psychology and represents the most current knowledge in the field This ten year revision now covers discoveries based in neuroscience clinical psychology s new interest in evidence based practice and mindfulness and new findings in social developmental and forensic psychology    The

Concise Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology and Behavioral Science W. Edward Craighead,Charles B. Nemerooff,2004-04-19 Edited by high caliber experts and contributed to by quality researchers and practitioners in psychology and related fields Includes over 500 topical entries Each entry features suggested readings and extensive cross referencing Accessible to students and general readers Edited by two outstanding scholars and clinicians    Communication and Health Eileen

Berlin Ray,Lewis Donohew,2013-11-05 This volume examines this rapidly growing and changing field by applying a unified framework that integrates both interpersonal and mass communication investigations into theoretical and applied issues Using a systems perspective as the organizational framework relevant issues in the communication of health care ranging from micro to macro levels are discussed The contributors recognize communication as a major factor affecting health today and therefore go beyond examinations of health communication as simply a dissemination of information regarding diseases diagnoses and treatments to show it as a much larger and more complex field with applications to all levels and forms of communication Communication and Health has as its three main objecties providing a comprehensive detailed and up to date picture of health communication applying an integrated logical structure to the field making a clear strong statement regarding the state of health communication and examining its future prospects The contributors address such issues as provider patient communication health care teams health care organizations public health campaigns and health education and then discuss the factors that affect the processing of health information Also included are examinations of changes in communication use within interpersonal small group and organizational health care contexts as well as the use of mass media and other sources for public health campaigns and for raising public awareness of health issues on a day to day basis Communication and Health fills a void in current literature on this field by serving as both a reference for professionals and researchers and as a textbook for advanced undergraduate and graduate level students in a multitude of courses

The Heart's Eye Paula M. Niedenthal,Shinobu Kitayama,2013-10-22

Recent years have seen a great deal of attention directed towards the so called warm look investigating how cold cognition and hot affect intermingle in perception and decision processes Following in this vein this book discusses conceptual models and research findings with respect to how affect influences non conscious processing The book is divided into two sections the first on affect and perception the second on affect and attention with discussants bringing each section into a cohesive whole
