The Social Structure of Right and Wrong Donald J. Black,2014 Practicing Therapy as Social Construction Sheila McNamee,Emerson F. Rasera,Pedro Martins,2022-11-23 This book introduces therapy as a socially constructed process helping you develop as a more socially and culturally aware practitioner International Journal of Ethics ,1922 Includes section Book reviews The Social Construction of the Person K.J. Gergen,K.E. Davis,2012-12-06 This volume grew out of a discussion between the editors at the Society for Experimental Social Psychology meeting in Nashville in 1981 For many years the Society has played a leading role in encouraging rigorous and sophisticated research Yet our discussion that day was occupied with what seemed a major problem with this finely honed tradition namely it was preoccupied with accurate renderings of reality while generally insensitive to the process by which such renderings are achieved This tradition presumed that there were brute facts to be discovered about human interaction with little consideration of the social processes through which factuality is established To what degree are accounts of persons constrained by the social process of rendering as opposed to the features of those under scrutiny This concern with the social process by which persons are constructed was hardly ours alone In fact within recent years such concerns have been voiced with steadily increasing clarity across a variety of disciplines Ethno methodologists were among the first in the social sciences to puncture the taken for granted realities of life Many sociologists of science have also turned their attention to the way social organizations of scientists create the facts necessary to sustain these organizations Historians of science have entered a similar enterprise in elucidating the social economic and ideological conditions enabling certain formulations to flourish in the sciences while others are suppressed Many social anthropologists have also been intrigued by cross cultural variations in the concept of the human being The Communicative Construction of Reality Hubert Knoblauch,2019-12-06 This volume advocates a shift from the social constructivism found in the work of Thomas Luckmann and Peter Berger to a communicative constructivism that acknowledges communication as an embodied form of action in its own right according to which social actors in engaging in communicative action construct a material social reality that guides delimits and enables actions A study of the importance of understanding the role of communication in an age in which digitization and mediatization have extended the reach of communication to a global level and brought about the emergence of the communication society The Communicative Construction of Reality shows how communication society does not merely replace modern society and its hierarchical institutions but complements it in a manner that continually results in conflicts leading to the refiguration of society As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in the sociology of knowledge communication and social theory
