Novel Stars English 11:

Clearing a Space Amit Chaudhuri, 2008 This book brings together many of Chaudhuri's best essays written over the past decade in journals such as the London Review of Books and the Times Literary Supplement. Often beginning with the personal Chaudhuri enquires into the nature of the secular in India into the history of such categories as the West, the foreign, the global and the exotic and into the frequently torn and self divided nature of modern Indian identity. Chaudhuri also makes a powerful case for thinking about Indian literature and culture in a way that departs strikingly from the parameters created since the publication of Midnight's Children and the consolidation of postcolonial studies. While his mode is broadly oppositional it is also one of constant engagement with the positions he is arguing against.

The Relocation of English

M. Saraceni, 2016-04-30 Addressing issues related to the physical, cultural, ideological and psychological relocation of English this volume provides a critical examination of current sociolinguistic study of English in the world and suggests a new approach which focuses more on ideological and psychological aspects of the phenomenon.

These investigations inform questions related to history, identity, methodology in school and out of school spaces and local, global literacies. An engaging blend of methodological, theoretical and empirical work featuring well known researchers on the topic this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and groundbreaking examples of empirical research.
