

Beautiful

I used to look in the mirror
And point out everything wrong with me
I would ask myself
Why wasn't I born differently
Why are my brown eyes so big
Why are my lips thin
Why is my jawline not slim
It took me years to realize
I was beautiful
I am beautiful
Quite imputable
To be called beautiful
The beauty not just on the surface
But deep within
Everything wrong with me
Was just precisely me
What made me different
Was what made me the one and only
I adore myself so much
And now I know
I will always be enough

The Meaning Of Poetry

William John Courthope

The Meaning Of Poetry:

Poetry and the Meaning of Life David Ian Hanauer, 2004 A poem can explain the inexplicable and express the unexpressed. This is how reading poetry enhances understanding and writing poetry helps students say things that they could not say in any other way. And it's why David Hanauer believes that poetry deserves to play a central role in classroom literacy programs. In Poetry and the Meaning of Life David explains how teachers can use poems to help students understand and express important thoughts, feelings, and experiences. He does this by discussing theories of reading and writing and relating these to vignettes that demonstrate how real teachers in real classrooms have used poetry to put these theories into practice with emergent and beginning readers, with mature readers, and with English language learners. The book concludes with a clarion call to teachers to use the transformative power of poetry to encourage their students to search out the meaning in their own lives.

ENGLISH LITERATURE

ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 3 - The Seventeenth Century Petru Golban, 2021-12-24 The present book is third in a series of works which aim to expose the complexity and essence power and extent of the major periods, movements, trends, genres, authors and literary texts in the history of English literature. Following this aim the series will consist of monographs which cover the most important ages and experiences of English literary history including Anglo Saxon or Old English period, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, the Restoration, neoclassicism, romanticism, Victorian Age and the twentieth century and contemporary literary backgrounds. The reader of these volumes will acquire the knowledge of literary terminology along with the theoretical and critical perspectives on certain texts and textual typology belonging to different periods, movements, trends and genres. The reader will also learn about the characteristics and conventions of these literary periods and movements, trends and genres, main writers and major works and the literary interaction and continuity of the given periods. Apart from an important amount of reference to literary practice some chapters on these periods include information on their philosophy, criticism, worldview, values or episteme in the Foucauldian sense which means that even though the condition of the creative writing remains as the main concern it is balanced by a focus on the condition of thought as well as theoretical and critical writing during a particular period. Preface, Introduction, Approaching Literary Practice and Studying British Literature in History, Preliminaries, Learning Literary Heritage through Critical Tradition or Back to Tynyanov, Genre Theory for Poetry, The Intellectual Background, 1.1 The Period and Its Historical Social and Cultural Implications, 1.2 The Philosophical Advancement of Modernity, 1.2.1 Francis Bacon and the New Method, 1.2.2 The Advancement of Classicism, French Contribution, 1.2.3 The Social and Political Philosophy Thomas Hobbes and Leviathan, 1.2.4 Rationalists and Empiricists, 1.3 The Idea of Literature as a Critical Concern in the Seventeenth Century, 1.3.1 The English Battle of the Books or La Querelle des Anciens et des Modernes in the European Context, 1.3.2 Restoration, John Dryden and Prescribing.
