

How To Measure Church Planting Success

Financial independence From your sending church

- Are you able to support your staff?
- Are you able to purchase or build your own space?
- Are you able to break away from the financial dependence on your sending church entirely?

Community outreach

- How many members and regular attenders are coming from a certain distance of your meeting space?
- Are you statistically similar to the diversity of your surrounding neighborhood?
- Are non-religious people attending because of the community?

Numeric growth

- What is the rate of growth for regular attenders month-to-month?
- Are your ministry areas growing and thriving?
- Do you have more "noses and numbers" accounted for than you did the previous six months?

Sent and sending

- Are you already planning your next church plant?
- Have you disciplined more church members into stepping into church planting of their own?
- Are you coordinating with other churches to multiply the number of churches in a given area?
