 Calhoun, 2007 Mary Gonzales strolls the streets of Chicago's meatpacking district every evening keeping a watchful eye over her neighborhood kids Tony Ortiz encourages young men in California state prisons to break free of the brutal gang life he once knew all too well Joe Hynes Brooklyn's district attorney champions women and children not wanting them to suffer as he suffered They and the twenty one other amazing people interviewed by Jack Calhoun are reshaping lives and communities across America They include Christians of every denomination Muslims Jews and others some who pray five times a day and some who are frankly not that religious But each tells Calhoun there's much more to the story You may have heard of some of these Americans Several are in the news The good words of all shine brightly in their communities What you haven't heard about is the underlying force the hidden source of their seemingly endless energy and selflessness It is faith a deep and in some cases unsuspected spirituality They have the unshakable sense that they work not only for their organizations and each individual they encounter but especially for God Calhoun was once an eager divinity school student hungry to make a difference Through the years he rose to national prominence in the field of public policy spending twenty plus years as the founding president of the National Crime Prevention Council However something wasn't right Caught up in a parade of committee meetings speaking engagements and policy and program initiatives he had lost touch with the bedrock of his vocation It took an encounter with an unusually clear sighted volunteer to reconnect his daily work to his faith in God Reinvigorated Calhoun embarked on a two year cross country quest to find out how faith motivates some of America's hardest working public servants They pursue a range of innovative and ambitious plans to help their communities and their accomplishments are impressive But just try telling them so They have been chosen they ll explain to fulfill a larger purpose Their paths have been rocky their burdens heavy and the work hasn t always been fun Yet they feel blessed emboldened by their trust in a higher power to live lives of acceptance and unbounded love Some recent books have laid divisiveness and hostility at faith s door Hope Matters brings to light the togetherness and reconciliation that faith truly engender when good people heed its call to action You won t hear Mary Tony Joe or the rest preaching from the pulpit or even in the streets They have no sermon or script to follow There is a ministry of open arms and second chances of waking up each morning with new challenges and going to bed each night with renewed faith Their stories just might inspire you to make your own place of worship a little bigger
