Creighton, 2016-11-30 This volume comprises thirteen reports detailing fieldwork undertaken by a research project which sought to assess the archaeological evidence of the period of conflict that took place in mid twelfth century England popularly known as the Anarchy

The Heads of Religious Houses David M. Smith, Vera C. M. London, 2001-08-09 This book is a continuation of The Heads of Religious Houses England and Wales 940-1216 edited by David Knowles C N L Brooke and Vera London which itself is reissued with substantial addenda by Professor Brooke. This present volume continues the lists from 1216 to 1377. In this period further record sources have been provided by episcopal registers, governmental enrolments, court records and so on. Full references are given for establishing the dates and outline of the career of each abbot or prior, abbess or prioress when known. The lists are arranged by order: the Benedictine houses, independent dependencies and alien priories; the Cluniacs, the Grandmontines, the Cistercians, the Carthusians, the Augustinian canons, the Premonstratensians, the Gilbertine order, the Trinitarian houses, the Bonhommes and the nuns. An introduction discusses the nature, use and history of the lists and examines critically the sources on which they are based

The Oxford Dictionary of Family Names in Britain and Ireland Patrick Hanks, Richard Coates, Peter McClure, 2016-11-17 Containing entries for more than 45 000 English, Scottish, Welsh, Irish, Cornish and immigrant surnames, The Oxford Dictionary of Family Names in Britain and Ireland is the ultimate reference work on family names of the UK. The Dictionary includes every surname that currently has more than 100 bearers. Each entry contains lists of variant spellings of the name, an explanation of its origins, including the etymology, lists of early bearers, showing evidence for formation and continuity from the date of formation down to the 19th century, geographical distribution and where relevant genealogical and bibliographical notes, making this a fully comprehensive work on family names. This authoritative guide also includes an introductory essay explaining the historical background, formation and typology of surnames and a guide to surnames research and family history research. Additional material also includes a list of published and unpublished lists of surnames from the Middle Ages to the present day

Fen and Sea I.G. Simmons, 2021-12-22 Renowned environmental historian I.G. Simmons synthesizes detailed research into the landscape history of the coastal area of Lincolnshire between Boston and Skegness and its hinterland of Tofts, Low Grounds and Fen as far as the Wolds. With many excellent illustrations, Simmons chronicles the ways in which this low coast, backed by a wet fen, has been managed to display a set of landscapes which have significant differences that contradict the common terminology of uniformity, calling the area flat or referring to everywhere from Cleethorpes to King's Lynn as the fens. These usually labeled flat areas of East Lincolnshire between Mablethorpe and Boston are in fact a mosaic of subtly different landscapes. They have become that way largely due to the human influences derived from agriculture and industry. Between the beginning of Norman rule and the advent of pumped drainage a number of significant changes took place. The author has accumulated information from Roman times until the beginnings of fossil fuel powered drainage bringing together both scientific data and documentary evidence including medieval and early modern documents from the National Archive Lincolnshire Archives Bethlem Hospital and Magdalen College Oxford to explore the little known archives of regional interest Women in Thirteenth-century Lincolnshire Louise J. Wilkinson,2015 Written by Louise J Wilkinson this book offers a regional study of women in 13th century England making pioneering use of charters chronicles government records some of the earliest manorial court rolls to examine the interaction of gender status life cycle in shaping women s experiences in Lincolnshire The Publications of the Lincoln Record Society Lincoln Record Society,1996 Anglo-Norman Studies XLVI Professor Stephen D
