The Mhra Stylebook:

MHRA Style Book Modern Humanities Research Association, Robert Leo Smallwood, 1981      John Grote, Cambridge University and the Development of Victorian Thought John Richard Gibbins, 2013-10-07 John Grote struggled to construct an intelligible account of philosophy at a time when radical change and sectarian conflict made understanding and clarity a rarity. This book answers three questions: How did John Grote develop and contribute to modern Cambridge and British philosophy? What is the significance of these contributions to modern philosophy in general and British Idealism and language philosophy in particular? How were his ideas and his idealism incorporated into the modern philosophical tradition? Grote influenced his contemporaries such as his students Henry Sidgwick and John Venn in both style and content; he forged a brilliantly original philosophy of knowledge, ethics, politics and language from a synthesis of the major British and European philosophies of his day. His social and political theory provide the origins of the new liberal ideas later to reach their zenith in the writings of Green, Sidgwick and Collingwood. He founded the Cambridge style associated with Moore, Russell, Broad, McTaggart and Wittgenstein, and he was also a major influence on Oakeshott.      The Margins of the Text David C. Greetham, 1997. These essays challenge the positivist, patriarchal assumptions of earlier approaches to textual criticism.

Collected Critical Writings Geoffrey Hill, 2008-02-29. The Collected Critical Writings of Geoffrey Hill gathers more than forty years of Hill's published criticism in a revised final form and also adds much new work. It will serve as the canonical volume of criticism by Hill, the pre-eminent poet-critic whom A. N. Wilson has called probably the best writer alive in verse or in prose. In his criticism, Hill ranges widely investigating both poets including Jonson, Dryden, Hopkins, Whitman, Eliot, and Yeats, and prose writers such as Tyndale, Clarendon, Hobbes, Burton, Emerson, and F. H. Bradley. He is also steeped in the historical context, political, poetic, and religious of the writers he studies. Most importantly, he brings texts and contexts into new and telling relations, neither reducing texts to the circumstances of their utterance nor imagining that they can float free of them. A number of the essays have already established themselves as essential reading on particular subjects such as his analysis of Vaughan's The Night, his discussion of Gurney's poetry, and his critical account of The Oxford English Dictionary. Others confront the problems of language and the nature of value directly as in Our Word is Our Bond, Language, Suffering, and Value and Poetry and Value. In all his criticism, Hill reveals literature to be an essential arena of civic intelligence.
